Richard L. Monfort

Owner/Chairman & Chief Executive Officer

Dick Monfort enters his 27th season with the Rockies franchise in 2024 and continues in his role as Owner/Chairman and Chief Executive Officer for the Club. A Colorado native, Monfort and the Colorado Rockies Ownership Group have established the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club as a leading enterprise in the Rocky Mountain Region in both sports and business. This organization's impact can be seen in its many contributions to the community, whether through benevolent outreach in the areas of youth sports and health, or in the development of young sports-minded professionals.

Brothers Dick and Charlie Monfort have done extensive community outreach through their family directed Monfort Family Foundation. In September 2004, the Monfort oncology floor of the new hospital is named in memory of Rick Wilson, a cousin of the Monfort family. The foundation is a longtime provider of funding and endorsement for the Boys & Girls Clubs in Metro Denver and Weld County. Also active in higher education, the Monfort family supports the Monfort School of Business at the University of Northern Colorado and the Monfort Excellence Fund at Colorado State University; both impact students, faculty and the Northern Colorado community through scholarships for exceptional students and support of outstanding faculty. Other organizations that have benefited from the Monfort family's years of philanthropic work include CU Cancer Center, Craig Hospital, United Way, the Denver Art Museum and Habitat for Humanity.

Individually, Monfort was the 2008 recipient of the United Way of Weld County Humanitarian of the Year Award—an award his father, Kenny Monfort, received twenty years earlier. Monfort is currently the Chairman of the University of Northern Colorado Board of Trustees and the Chairman of the Board of Directors of University of Colorado Health.

Monfort spent 25 years in the cattle business, primarily with his family's company. In 1987, he was named president of Monfort of Colorado, Inc., a subsidiary of ConAgra, and in 1991 became president and CEO of ConAgra Red Meats.

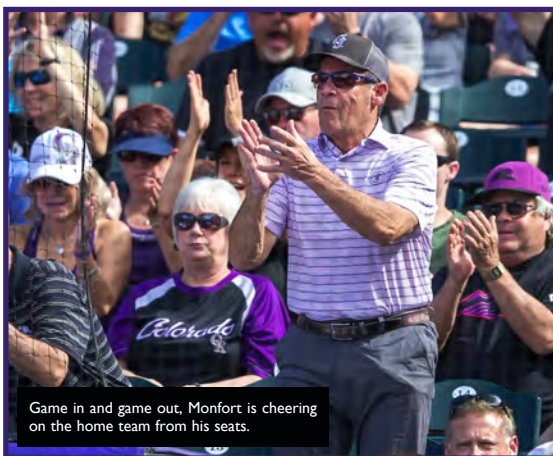

More recent ventures include McGregor Square, 655,000 square feet of residential and commercial space located adjacent to Coors Field in historic lower downtown Denver (LoDo). McGregor Square connects the ballpark to a neighborhood that has developed dramatically over the past 25 years with direct access to Union Station and RiNo District and is a vibrant year-round complement to Coors Field. The public gathering spaces combined with retail and restaurants, food hall, multi-family residential development, hotel, and office spaces creates a robust environment. But beyond baseball, it will serve as a new and fresh year-round destination that can host neighborhood concerts, festivals, and other public activities for both visitors and the LoDo community alike.

A 1976 graduate of the University of Northern Colorado, Monfort has a bachelor's degree in business management. In May 2012, Colorado State University President Tony Frank awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Humane Letters to Monfort in recognition of his significant contributions to Colorado industry and higher education. Additionally, he has been awarded an honorary Doctor of Business Administration in Entrepreneurship by Johnson & Wales University in May 2014 and Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters in December 2021 from University of Colorado Anschutz Medical Campus.

Monfort has three children: daughter Dr. Lyndsey Grae M.D., eldest son Walker (wife Lauren, daughter Maren Lee) who serves as the club's vice president of corporate partnerships and son Sterling, the Rockies' director of pro scouting. Dick currently resides in McGregor Square Residence with his wife Karen.

Monfort congratulates Rockies employees receiving commendations in a pregame on-field ceremony.

Game in and game out, Monfort is cheering on the home team from his seats.

Charles K. Monfort

Owner/General Partner

Charlie Monfort, Owner/General Partner, is a club founder and has been one of the Rockies' managing general partners since 1992.

Brothers Dick and Charlie Monfort have done extensive community outreach through their family directed Monfort Family Foundation. In September 2004, the Monfort Family Foundation gifted $10 million to Children's Hospital Colorado for the construction of a new medical facility in Aurora, Colo. The oncology floor of the new hospital is named in memory of Rick Wilson, a cousin of the Monfort family. In addition, the family funded a display of artwork, photography and Rockies memorabilia to enhance the seventh floor of the hospital. The foundation is a longtime provider of funding and endorsement for the Boys & Girls Clubs in Metro Denver and Weld County. In 2012, they matched dollar for dollar on fans' collected contributions for Coloradoans devastated by summer wildfires. Also active in higher education, the Monfort family supports the Monfort School of Business at the University of Northern Colorado and the Monfort Excellence Fund at Colorado State University; both impact students, faculty and the Northern Colorado community through scholarships for exceptional students and support of outstanding faculty. Other organizations that have benefited from the Monfort family's years of philanthropic work include CU Cancer Center, Craig Hospital, United Way, the Denver Art Museum and Habitat for Humanity.

Charlie was named president of Monfort International Sales Corporation in 1988, and under his guidance, it became one of the largest beef exporters in the world and the leading exporter of beef products to Asia. In 1990, Monfort became president of ConAgra Refrigerated Foods International, Inc., which consolidated Monfort International Sales Corporation with all of ConAgra's international refrigerated foods companies. Charlie resigned from ConAgra in late 1997 in order to concentrate on his leadership role with the Rockies.

Monfort has a bachelor's degree in marketing & business management from the University of Utah (1982) and served as president of Kappa Sigma Fraternity. He currently serves on the Special Olympics Board of Directors, is a member of the Advisory Board for the University of Utah and is an active supporter of the Denver Dream program.

Monfort has four children: son Kenny, daughter Ciara and twins, son Lucas and daughter Danica. He continues to make his primary residence in Greeley, Colo. with his wife Charlotte.

Monfort greets Rockies fans as they enter the ballpark on Opening Day.

Colorado Rockies Ownership Group

Linda Alvarado

Alvarado Construction, Inc.

Linda Alvarado is President and CEO of Alvarado Construction, Inc., a Denver based commercial general contractor, construction manager, development, design/build and property management firm that has built projects across the United States and internationally.

Alvarado has been a director of several Fortune 500 Companies and is on the Mayo Clinic Board of Trustees. She is an inductee of the Latin American International Sports Hall of Fame, the National Women's Hall of Fame, the National Minority Business and the Women's Business Enterprise Hall of Fame.

Alvarado was a speaker with Hank Aaron and Frank Robinson for the MLB Civil Rights Awards Game at Minute Maid Park in Houston, and she was presented the Manny Mota Foundation Pinch Hitter Award at Dodger Stadium as the first Hispanic owner (male or female) of a MLB team and for her leadership in raising money to assist families in the Dominican Republic.

Alvarado is very committed to opening doors for others to have opportunities to achieve their goals. Among her leadership positions in civic and charitable organizations, she is a founding trustee of The Rose Community Foundation, a director of the Taco Bell Foundation, founding member of the Denver Hispanic Chamber of Commerce, the Colorado Latino Community Foundation, and a Commissioner of the White House Initiative for Hispanic Excellence in Education.

The Denver Post, LLC

The Denver Post, LLC is Colorado's leading source for news and information. It is the state's largest daily newspaper that features a diverse network of digital, mobile, search, social, video and print products and local news sites, including DenverPost.com, TheKnow.DenverPost.com, DailyCamera.com and TimesCall.com, among others.

Marne Obernauer, Jr.

Breakthru Beverage Group

Marne Obernauer, Jr., is a director of Breakthru Beverage Colorado, a major wholesale distributor of fine wines, spirits and craft beers in Colorado, and he is a shareholder and a member of the Board of Directors of its parent company, Breakthru Beverage Group, a national wholesale organization.

From 1982-98, Obernauer was chairman and CEO of Devon Group, Inc., a publicly traded company engaged in a broad range of graphic arts services and products.

Obernauer is a founding member of the American Business Conference and is a director of the Committee for a Responsible Federal Budget. He is a member of the Leadership Council of the Yale School of the Environment and is a member of the President's Committee of the Dana Farber Cancer Institute. He is also a founder, former chairman and current member of LIFT, a national anti-poverty service organization linking families in need with the resources and opportunities necessary to become self-sufficient.

SAMT Sports 2013 LLC

SAMT Sports 2013 LLC is an investment group led by Jay D. Stein and David N. Eskenazi. Stein and Eskenazi are commercial real estate developers (Sandor Development) with offices in Arizona and Indiana. Sandor is one of the nation's largest privately held shopping center owners. In addition to the core Sandor enterprise, Stein and Eskenazi own Sand Capital, which purchases distressed real estate assets and notes. Both are active in various not-for-profit boards in their respective communities. Stein was instrumental in the establishment of Camp Daisy and Harry Stein, a summer camp in Prescott, Ariz., named in honor of his parents and recently named the lobby/waiting room at the heart hospital at Lucille Packard Children's Hospital at Stanford University in honor of his four children. Eskenazi took a lead role on the board serving the Sidney D. and Lois Eskenazi Hospital, the public hospital serving Indianapolis, Ind., and greater Marion County.

Other members of the SAMT Sports 2013 LLC group include Sandy Eskenazi, Dori Eskenazi Meyers, and John McEvoy.

Colorado Rockies Officers

Greg Feasel
President/Chief Operating Officer

Greg Feasel is in his 29th year with the Colorado Rockies, his 14th year as chief operating officer and his fourth year as president. In this role, Feasel manages all aspects of the organization's operations.

Feasel joined the Rockies prior to the 1996 season after serving as a division director of sales and marketing for Coca-Cola Enterprises, where he was responsible for all revenue areas and key accounts while overseeing the day-to-day operations of a distribution and sales center. Feasel is also a former educator in Texas and Colorado.

A graduate of Abilene Christian University, Feasel was inducted into the school's Sports Hall of Fame in 2005. Along with his brother, Grant, he was also selected for the ACU All-Century Team in 2005. Feasel was a professional football player from 1983-1987, and his career included time with the Green Bay Packers, San Diego Chargers and the Denver Gold in the United States Football League.

In addition to his responsibilities with the Rockies, Feasel is also active in the community. He currently serves as chairman of the board for VISIT DENVER (convention and visitors bureau), is a board member of the Denver Police Foundation and is executive director of the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation.

Greg and his wife Lynn have one daughter, Zoie.

Bill Schmidt
Senior Vice President - General Manager

Bill Schmidt is in his third season as senior vice president and general manager after being named to the position on Oct. 2, 2021. He was originally named interim general manager on May 3, 2021. He is the fourth general manager in franchise history, following Jeff Bridich (2015-21), Dan O'Dowd (2000-14) and Bob Gebhard (1993-99).

Schmidt originally joined the Rockies on Oct. 1, 1999 and led the Rockies scouting department over the next 20-plus years, most recently as the vice president of scouting, a position he was appointed to on Jan. 2, 2007.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Schmidt served four seasons (1995-99) as a national crosschecker with the Cleveland Indians and eight seasons (1988-95) with the New York Yankees as a supervisor of the Southern California, Arizona and Nevada regions. He worked for the Major League Baseball Scouting Bureau from 1987-88, after launching his scouting career with the Cincinnati Reds (1982-84). All told, Schmidt has over 30 years of scouting experience, and in 2019 was honored as the West Coast Scout of the Year (2019) and with the Legends in Scouting Award.

His first job out of college was as head baseball coach at his alma mater, Magnolia High School, in Anaheim, Calif. He also assisted at Santa Ana Junior College (1982-84) and Arizona State University (1985). Professionally, he coached in the Pioneer League for the Reds (1984) and Brewers (1986), before his three seasons coaching the Yankees' New York-Penn League club (1991-93).

Schmidt has a master's degree from Azusa Pacific and a bachelor's degree from Cal. State, Long Beach. Bill and his wife Linda have two sons, Andrew and Matthew, a former infielder in the Kansas City organization.

Rolando Fernandez
Vice President - International Scouting & Development

This is the 32nd season for Rolando Fernandez with the Rockies organization and his 10th as vice president of international scouting & development. Fernandez, who previously served as the senior director of international scouting, oversees all aspects of international scouting, player development and day-to-day operations. In 2023, he was honored as the International Scout of the Year at the 39th annual Scout of the Year awards reception at the Winter Meetings in Nashville, Tenn.

In 2005, Fernandez was honored as the Rockies' Herb Hippauf Scouting Award recipient, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies. Prior to his current role, he spent four seasons as the roving Latin American coordinator and, in 1999, was named the Rockies' Player Development "Man of the Year."

Prior to heading up the Rockies' international scouting efforts, Fernandez also coached the Rockies' Arizona Rookie League club from 1994-97, and the High-A Visalia affiliate for half of the 1993 season. Before joining the Rockies, the former outfielder played three years in the Chicago Cubs organization. Fernandez was drafted by the Cubs in the 1990 First-Year Player Draft.

A 1990 graduate of Northwestern State University of Louisiana, Fernandez has a bachelor's degree in advertising. Rolando is married to Kim Velazquez and has two daughters, Sofia Camille and Adriana.

Brian Gaffney
Vice President - General Counsel

Brian Gaffney is in his seventh season with the Colorado Rockies, his sixth as vice president, general counsel. Prior to his promotion to vice president, Gaffney was the Club's general counsel. Gaffney is responsible for all legal aspects and functions of the Club, including corporate governance, drafting and negotiating contracts and managing litigation.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Gaffney was a partner with the law firm of Snell & Wilmer L.L.P. in Denver for over 10 years, where he specialized in corporate mergers and acquisitions, real estate, bankruptcy, restructuring and commercial finance law. He is admitted to practice law in Colorado and Texas (inactive) in a variety of courts, including the Colorado Supreme Court, the United States District Court for the District of Colorado, and the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. While in private practice, Gaffney was named Colorado Super Lawyers® Rising Star four times (2014-17). Gaffney is a member of the State Bar of Colorado, the Denver Bar Association and the Sports Lawyers Association.

Gaffney is a member of the Board of Directors for the Colorado Sports Hall of Fame and the National Football Foundation (Colorado Chapter), and has been involved with a variety of charitable organizations, including the Rocky Mountain Stanford Alumni Association, the Global Down Syndrome's Dare to Play Camp and the Boys and Girls Club of Denver.

Born and raised in Phoenix, Ariz., Gaffney holds a bachelor's in political science, with honors, from Stanford University (2003), a master's in political sociology from Stanford University (2004), and earned his J.D., with honors, from University of Texas at Austin (2007). Gaffney was also a four-year letterman in football at Stanford University, where he was a linebacker and a member of teams that won the 1999 Pac-10 Championship and played in the 2000 Rose Bowl and the 2001 Seattle Bowl. He was also the Special Teams Player of the Year in 2003.

Brian and his wife Abby reside in Highlands Ranch, Colo., and have four children: Molly, Mason, Nolan and Tobin.

Kevin Kahn
Vice President/Chief Customer Officer - Ballpark Operations

This season is Kevin Kahn's 31st with the Rockies and 24th as vice president of ballpark operations. In December 2003, the club named Kahn its first-ever chief customer officer, charging him with the responsibility of overseeing the Coors Field Customer Service Committee, a diverse group of Rockies' and partner employees whose purpose is to continually strive for and uphold the highest standards of service provided by the Rockies and Coors Field service partners to all of the club's employees, guests and sponsors. Kahn also directs all aspects of ballpark operations, including the club's partnership with the Coors Field food service provider, Aramark. He also serves on Major League Baseball's Scheduling Committee and on the Board of the Stadium Managers Association.

Prior to being named vice president, Kahn was senior director of Coors Field operations from 1997-2000. He was the director of stadium services his first three seasons with the club. Kahn has been involved with professional baseball for 40 years, previously working for the Oakland Athletics from 1981-93. He started as an operations assistant before being named director of stadium operations in 1987. He spent his last seven seasons with the A's in that capacity.

The Oakland, Calif., native graduated from Bishop O'Dowd High School. He went on to receive his bachelor's degree in business administration from California State University-Hayward.

Kevin has two children, Haley and Kyle, and resides in Highlands Ranch, Colo., with his wife Lisa.

Jim Kellogg
Vice President - Community & Retail Operations

Jim Kellogg was named vice president of community and retail operations on Jan. 1, 2006. Overall, this is his 31st season with the Rockies organization.

Kellogg is responsible for directing the Rockies' retail operations as well as heading the community affairs department. He works directly with players and coaches as the liaison between the organization and the community. His community work is a reflection of the Rockies' contributions to youth education and health. His duties include overseeing the Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation, in addition to overseeing the Rockies Dugout

Stores, Coors Field retail and club archives.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Kellogg spent eight years with Mercantile Stores. He serves on the board of directors for the Lower Downtown District, Inc., is the current chairman of the Children's Hospital Colorado Foundation's Corporate Leadership Council and sits on the board of Denver Sports.

A graduate of Denver's J.K. Mullen High School, Kellogg attended Colorado State University and received his bachelor's degree from Regis University in 1987. Jim and his wife Cheli reside in Highlands Ranch, Colo. They have a son Danny (wife Elizabeth and daughter Libby Rose) and a daughter Amanda (husband Austin and daughter Gabriella Michele).

Sue Ann McClaren

Vice President - Ticket Sales, Operations & Services

Sue Ann McClaren joined the Rockies in October of 1992 and was responsible for beginning the ticket sales department for the new expansion team. This included hiring a staff, developing policies and managing the sales of all tickets before the inaugural season. The 2024 season is her 32nd year with the club and her 47th in Major League Baseball. McClaren was named vice president on Dec. 1, 1995, becoming the Rockies' first female officer.

McClaren served as director of ticket sales in 1993, during which the Rockies set Major League records for highest attendance in a single game, night game, three-game series and single season. Colorado led the Majors in attendance for each of its first seven seasons of existence (1993-99) and has drawn more than 79 million since 1993.

Prior to joining Colorado, McClaren worked for 15 years in the sales department with the St. Louis Cardinals, who won three NL pennants and one World Series title during that time. She was director of ticket sales with the Cardinals before joining the expansion Rockies. Sue Ann is a graduate of William Woods College in Fulton, Mo.

Kimberly Molina

Vice President - Human Resources

The 2024 season will be Kimberly Molina's third full season with the Rockies. She joined the club in November 2021 and is responsible for all human resource related matters for the organization. Prior to the Rockies, she spent over 13 years in HR and leadership development roles in the fashion and paid-TV industries.

A native of New Jersey, Molina is a graduate from Douglass College at Rutgers University with a major in psychology and a minor in history.

Kimberly and her husband, Adrian, reside in Parker, Colo., and have two children, Benny and Alex.

Walker Monfort

Vice President - Corporate Partnerships

This is Walker Monfort's 10th year as the club's vice president of corporate partnerships and his 15th working in a full-time capacity for the Colorado Rockies.

Monfort is responsible for the oversight and management of the club's revenue generated through sponsorship of the Rockies, including oversight of the club's promotions department, in-game entertainment and RockiesVision production.

Monfort officially joined the Rockies front office on a full-time basis in December 2009, after four years of work in a part-time capacity in several departments across the organization. From 2005-08, Monfort worked summers on the grounds crew, in the visiting clubhouse, in the ticket office and on the gameday promotions team. From 2009-13, Monfort worked in the baseball operations department with a focus on the Rockies' Minor League operations and player development. In 2014, Monfort was appointed director of corporate partnerships, which led to a promotion to vice president of the department. Monfort is co-chairman of the board of advisors for ACE Scholarships in Colorado, an organization focused on providing resources to better establish quality choice education for kids in low-income families.

Monfort, 36, graduated from Colorado State University in December 2009. He earned a bachelor's degree in journalism and a minor in business administration. Walker is a product of Eaton (Colo.) High School, and he and his wife Lauren and their daughter Maren currently reside in Denver, Colo.

Danny Montgomery

Vice President & Assistant General Manager - Scouting

Danny Montgomery, an original hire and member of the Rockies organization since November 1991, embarks on his third season as vice president and assistant general manager of scouting. He was originally promoted to the role on Oct. 2, 2021.

Prior to his promotion, Montgomery spent the previous seven seasons (2015-21) as a special assistant to the general manager, working closely with previous GM Jeff Bridich and current GM and former Vice President of Scouting Bill Schmidt on the annual First-Year Player Draft. He also previously served as the assistant director of scouting (2005-14), national crosschecker (2002-04), East Coast crosschecker (2000-02) and West Coast crosschecker (1998-99) after beginning his Rockies career as an area scout in the Carolinas.

In 2018, Montgomery joined the Board of Directors for the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation, was elected to the Scouts Hall of Fame and was also voted the 2018 East Coast Scout of the Year by Major League Baseball. He was also honored with the Herb Hoppauf Scouting Award in 2001, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies.

Montgomery was drafted as a shortstop by the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1986, and played in the Minor Leagues until a knee injury curtailed his career. He retired as a player in 1989 and immediately became a coach with the Rookie Level Dodgers affiliate in Kissimmee, Fla. Following that season, he became an area scout with the Dodgers until he joined the Rockies' front office.

Montgomery attended the University of North Carolina-Charlotte, where he played shortstop and studied psychology. He is a graduate of T.C. Roberson High School in Asheville, N.C., where he starred in baseball and basketball.

Douglas Mylowe

Vice President - Chief Financial Officer

Douglas Mylowe joined the Rockies in August 2023 and is responsible for leading the club's financial operations including accounting, reporting, payroll and treasury management.

His credentials include over 25 years of progressively responsible finance roles in sports and hospitality. Prior to the Rockies, Doug spent six seasons with the Los Angeles Angels where he oversaw the daily financial functions of the club and related entities. During that time, he successfully led strategic financial initiatives, accelerated the department's digital transformation and provided technical accounting guidance during changes in GAAP standards.

Doug is a CPA and earned his MBA from UCLA Anderson School of Management. He received his degree in Accounting from Lehigh University, where he was a member of the men's lacrosse team, earning all-league honors.

Zack Rosenthal

Vice President & Assistant General Manager - Baseball Ops./Assistant General Counsel

Zack Rosenthal enters his third full season as vice president of baseball operations and his 10th as an assistant general manager, his 19th overall with the Rockies. He was originally promoted to vice president on Oct. 2, 2021.

Rosenthal joined the Rockies in 2006 as an intern in player development, after interning for the Boston Red Sox in Fenway Affairs and working as an account manager with the Oakland Athletics. After his internship with the Rockies, Rosenthal was hired as a baseball operations assistant and assistant general counsel, a post he held for four seasons, before serving as the club's director of baseball operations and assistant general counsel for five seasons.

In his current role, Rosenthal assists General Manager Bill Schmidt with contract matters, player transactions, payroll management, salary arbitration, statistical analysis, Major League roster oversight, rules administration, advanced scouting, as well as team operations, daily budgeting and capital expense management, and all legal matters involving the baseball operations department. Additionally, as the club's assistant general counsel, he assists with business matters, litigation and other legal issues as needed.

After receiving his bachelor's degree in mass communication from the University of California, Berkeley, Rosenthal earned his J.D. at Boston University School of Law, as well as his master's degree in communications from Boston University College of Communication.

Zack and his wife Kara were married in October 2007, and they currently live in Denver, Colo., with their daughter, Preston.

Colorado Rockies Baseball Operations Department

Tim Batesole

Analyst - Minor League Operations

Tim Batesole begins his eighth season with the Rockies, his second as a player development analyst. Using technology and data-driven insights, he assists the player development department in player evaluation and development decisions.

Before assuming his current role, Batesole held positions as the coordinator of Minor League Operations in 2022 and the coordinator of Minor League video and technology in 2021. Prior to that, he worked for three seasons as the Minor League video assistant in Scottsdale, AZ. He began his journey with the Rockies in 2017 as a video assistant with High-A Lancaster, following internships with the Los Angeles Angels and Baltimore Orioles.

A native of Mission Viejo, Calif., Batesole graduated from San Diego State University in 2013.

Chris Bonk

Analyst - Pitching

Chris Bonk begins his eighth season with the Rockies, his second as pitching analyst. Bonk works with the baseball operations and player development departments in researching and developing methods for the purpose of player assessment, development, acquisition and in-game strategy.

Bonk had previously assisted the Rockies with Minor League video and technology management and analysis. He initially joined the Rockies in the 2017 season as a video assistant for Triple-A Albuquerque. He had previously interned at TrackMan with the data operations/analytics and baseball field operations departments.

Born and raised in Fort Collins, Colo., Bonk played baseball at Garden City Community College and Hofstra University. He earned a bachelor's degree in management and master's in sports management from Hofstra. Bonk resides in Indian Hills, Colo. with his wife, Caitlyn.

Michael Brandt

Full Stack Developer

Michael Brandt continues with the Rockies for his third season as a full stack developer in baseball operations. Brandt works to develop internal scouting and coaching tools to empower the entire research and development team as well as assist scouts, coaches and players.

Originally from Los Angeles, Calif., Michael studied at Wesleyan University where he majored in mathematics and Russian with a minor in data science. When he is not watching baseball, you can find Michael obsessing over movies, practicing piano, and playing tennis.

Irma Castañeda

Assistant to Senior Vice President & General Manager

In her 28th season with the Rockies, Irma Castañeda serves as the assistant to Senior Vice President and General Manager Bill Schmidt. She is in her 10th year in baseball operations and sixth in her current role.

Castañeda began working in baseball in 1985 for Milwaukee's Double-A affiliate, the El Paso Diablos, where she worked for seven seasons. During the 1995 All-Star FanFest in Arlington, Texas, she served as an event manager, and in 1996, she worked as a ticketing trainee with the Atlanta Braves Triple-A affiliate, the Richmond Braves. In September 1996, Castañeda was hired part-time in the Rockies call center before becoming a full-time employee in the group sales department. In May 2001, she was named assistant to the director of communications/public relations and eventually assistant to the vice president of communications/public relations and in 2015 began working in the baseball operations department.

A 1996 graduate of the University of Texas, Castañeda majored in sport management with a minor in business administration. She worked in the sports information department during her time at Texas. Born and raised in El Paso, Texas, Irma lives in Morrison, Colo., and has two daughters, Larissa and Tatiana.

Vinny Castilla

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Vinny Castilla is a club original and one of the most popular players in franchise history; 2024 marks his 18th season as special assistant to the general manager.

Castilla, a native of Oaxaca, Mexico, was selected by the Rockies in the 1992 Expansion Draft, playing for Colorado's inaugural club in 1993 and being named to the All-Star team twice over the course of eight seasons with the Rockies organization. Castilla ranks among the Rockies career top-10 leaders in games, at-bats, runs, hits, doubles, home runs, RBI, extra-base hits and total bases.

Vinny currently lives in Denver with his wife Samantha and three sons, Marco, Daulton and Cristian.

Doug Chadwick

Director - Mental Skills Development

Doug Chadwick is in his ninth season with the Rockies and his fifth as the director of mental skills development.

In his current role, Chadwick develops, teaches and supervises the performance focused mental skills education for Minor League and Major League players and staff. He is a Certified Mental Skills Consultant (CMPC) by the Association of Applied Sports Psychology (AASP) and is the current president of the Professional Baseball Performance Psychology Group.

Prior to joining the Rockies organization, Chadwick was a field artillery officer in the United States Army before retiring as the director of the Center for Enhanced Performance (CEP) at West Point following 20 years of active service. His service also included multiple combat tours in Iraq as well as faculty assignments at West Point, and he was awarded the Bronze Star two times. Chadwick also assisted in developing the mental skills education used throughout the U.S. Army.

Chadwick graduated with a bachelor's degree from the U.S. Military Academy, where he was the starting offensive guard on Army's nationally ranked football team in 1996. He received his Master of Arts in Applied Economics from the University of Oklahoma and a Master of Science in Kinesiology (Sport Psychology) from Cal State Fullerton. Chadwick is also a graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College. He earned his Ph.D. in higher education from the University of Georgia's Institute of Higher Education.

Doug and his wife Dr. Heather Chadwick, a professor at Charleston Southern, have two daughters: Emma (21) and Leah (14). They reside in Mount Pleasant, S.C., during the offseason.

Declan Costello

Data Engineer

Declan Costello begins his third full season with the Rockies as a data engineer after being hired in early 2022.

In his role, Costello is responsible for building systems to collect and convert raw data into usable information for Rockies scouts, coaches and players.

Originally born in Chicago, Ill., Costello is a graduate of Iowa State University where he majored in software engineering while adding a minor in chemistry.

Ty Coslow

Special Assistant - Player Personnel

Ty Coslow, an original Rockies hire, is in his 33rd year with the club and 10th in his current role. Coslow's career began as an associate scout with the Montreal Expos in 1988, before becoming one of original Scouting Director Pat Daugherty's first hires with the Rockies in 1992. In his current role, Coslow evaluates professional players on special assignment and assists in player personnel acquisitions.

From Louisville, Ky., Coslow was an area scouting supervisor for 10 seasons before being promoted to Midwest crosschecker in 2002. After three seasons, he was promoted to national crosschecker, a post he held for five seasons. In 2010, Coslow moved over to the professional scouting department, where he scouted opposing organizations for professional acquisitions. Coslow was awarded the Pat Daugherty Scout of the Year Award in 1997 in recognition of scouting excellence. He was also awarded the Herb Hippauf Scouting Award in 2006, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies. Over the course of his scouting career, Coslow has signed Rockies great Todd Helton as well as big leaguers Mark Thompson and Clint Barmes, among others.

Ty and his wife Kim reside in Louisville, Ky., and have two married daughters, Courtney and Morgan, and one beautiful granddaughter, Quinn.

Paul Ekins

Senior Director - Major League Operations

A Rockies original hire, Paul Ekins officially joined the club on Oct. 30, 1991. In his current role, Ekins coordinates the Rockies Spring Training operations, Major League team travel, player relations and has special scouting assignments. The Columbus, Ga., native was promoted to director of Major League operations on Nov. 16, 2000, after serving as director of player development from 1997-99. In 2018, Ekins was the recipient of the Rocky Mountain Chapter SABR award for Lifetime Achievement in Baseball and was named the Major League Baseball Don Davidson Memorial Award Traveling Secretary of the Year, which was voted on by his peers.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Ekins worked for the Atlanta Braves from 1988-91, and he was hired by Hall of Famer Hank Aaron, who continued to be his friend and mentor. Ekins finished his time with the Braves as assistant to the director of player development and scouting. He also spent two seasons as the team trainer of the Burlington Braves in the Midwest League, and in a similar role at both the University of Georgia and Florida A&M.

Born Sept. 22, 1963, Ekins received a bachelor's degree in biology from the University of Georgia in 1986, with graduate work at Florida A&M in sports administration. Paul currently resides in Denver, Colo.

Allison Florian

Analyst, Baseball Research and Development

Allison Florian enters her third season with the Rockies, spending her first two seasons as a research and development fellow. Entering into the 2024 season she has taken on the role of an R&D analyst. In her role, she specializes in position players, including hitting, defense and baserunning, where she assists in various areas of R&D and baseball operations including player acquisition and analysis, advanced scouting reports and decision making through data-driven information.

Prior to working with the Rockies, Florian was a softball graduate student athlete at Mississippi State University where she received her master's in business administration with a minor in business analytics. She also held the position of community and events chair for the Student Athlete Development Department. In her last semester, she received a scholarship from MLB to attend the SABR analytics conference. She was then selected to be an R&D fellow with the Rockies through the MLB Diversity and Inclusion Fellowship Program.

Preceding her time as a graduate student, she attended Duke University where she received a degree in psychology, a minor in education and a markets and management certificate as well as spending her first two years as a student athlete on the inaugural softball team. Florian was born and raised in St. Louis, MO until her family moved to Kannapolis, NC where she spent her last two years of high school.

Chris Forbes

Director - Player Development

Chris Forbes enters his third season as the director of player development after serving as the assistant director of player development for three seasons. Forbes joined the Rockies in 2007 and moved into the front office in 2015 after spending the previous eight seasons as an area scouting supervisor.

In his time in the amateur scouting department, Forbes was the area scout in several parts of the country. He began his tenure scouting southern Texas, moving from there to the Pacific Northwest, and spent five years scouting Arizona, Utah, New Mexico and Las Vegas. Forbes' scouting skills earned him the Pat Daugherty Scout of the Year Award in 2011.

Forbes previously held several coaching positions at the collegiate level, including stints at Kansas State and Northern Colorado. Chris, his wife Lisa, and their children, TJ and Madison, currently reside in Englewood, Colo..

Steve Foster

Director - Pitching Operations

Isaac Gerhart-Hines

Manager - Baseball Systems

Isaac Gerhart-Hines enters his third season with the Colorado Rockies, his second as the manager of baseball systems and his 10th year overall in Major League Baseball. He originally spent parts of the 2021 and 2022 seasons as a full stack web developer. Before joining the Rockies, Gerhart-Hines spent seven seasons with the Washington Nationals as a senior developer and the director of software development. Prior to that, he was a senior software engineer at Amazon.com in Seattle for five years.

As a manager of baseball systems, Gerhart-Hines is responsible for building the internal baseball information systems that are used by all facets of baseball operations, including statistical analysis, scouting and player development. He specializes in front-end design and creating intuitive applications.

Gerhart-Hines, 36, grew up in Reading, Pa., and received a bachelor's degree in computer science from Drexel University in 2010.

Albert Gilbert

Senior Analyst - Baseball Strategy and Economics

Al Gilbert is in his third year with the Colorado Rockies after spending four seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers. Gilbert, 34, assists all areas of the Baseball Operations department with research and analysis of economic issues impacting Major League Baseball. He is involved in matters of player valuation, waivers, roster management, statistical analysis, salary arbitration, contract extensions, and free agent acquisitions.

Gilbert is an Oakland, Calif. native. He received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Stanford University and his law degree from Harvard Law School. Before shifting to baseball, Gilbert worked in San Francisco as an attorney at Morgan, Lewis & Bockius and he served as an assistant district attorney in the San Francisco District Attorney's Office.

Emily Glass

Scouting Operations Administrator

Emily Glass enters her third year with the Rockies, assisting operations for the amateur scouting department. She handles day-to-day administrative tasks and serves as the area scout for Colorado and Wyoming. Glass previously spent four seasons with the Miami Marlins as a Minor League coordinator. Prior to that, she interned in the MLB office in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

In 2015, Glass was awarded a Watson Fellowship to study international baseball development systems in seven countries. She played baseball in Melbourne, Australia, coached in Tokyo, Japan and scouted in Latin America. Glass graduated from Davis Senior High School in Davis, Calif., where she played four years of varsity softball. She earned a bachelor's degree in Public Policy Analysis and Politics from Pomona College in Claremont, Calif., where she wrote her senior thesis on the policies that changed demographics in Major League Baseball.

Avery Griggs

Assistant - Player Development & Pro Scouting

Avery Griggs enters her third season with the Rockies as the player development and professional scouting assistant. In this role, Griggs supports the player development and pro scouting departments with data and video as well as helping with contracts and roster management.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Griggs spent the 2020 season in the Seattle Mariners' organization, assisting the player development department with technology and video at the club's Arizona complex in Peoria, Ariz.

A Colorado native who attended Arapahoe High School, Griggs graduated from Ohio State University in 2020 with a degree in sports management.

Jimmy Hartley

Manager - Baseball Technology

Marc, his wife Amy and their two sons, Jack and Charlie, reside in Broomfield, Colo.

Weston Harper

Senior Software Engineer

Weston Harper is entering his first full season as a senior software engineer on the baseball systems team. Prior to joining the Rockies organization, Harper worked as a software engineer building applications of all sizes for a handful of top tech companies, most recently at Microsoft.

In his current role, Harper is primarily dedicated to the development of the Rockies' internal baseball systems application while also contributing to various technical efforts across research and development. He's excited to bring his experience from big tech to the Rockies organization and is focused on building the best internal system in baseball.

Raised in the Denver metro area, Weston has been a lifelong Rockies fan and is dedicated to bringing the Commissioner's Trophy to the Mile High City. When not at the ballpark, you can find him playing recreational sports, drumming, traveling, or hacking away on the latest tech.

Todd Helton

Special Assistant to the General Manager

Todd Helton enters his third season as special assistant to the general manager, primarily assisting in player development alongside Clint Hurdle.

In January 2024, Helton was elected to the National Baseball Hall of Fame, becoming the second Hall of Famer in franchise history alongside Larry Walker.

Helton was selected by Colorado in the first round (eighth overall) of the 1995 First-Year Player Draft and spent his entire career in the Rockies organization. He is one of 58

Hall of Famers to have spent their entire career within one organization and the fourth first baseman to have done so (Jeff Bagwell, Lou Gehrig, Bill Terry).

In 2,247 career games across parts of 17 Major League seasons with the Rockies from 1997-2013, Helton compiled a .316 batting average, a .414 on-base percentage and a .539 slugging percentage with 1,401 runs, 2,519 hits, 592 doubles, 37 triples, 369 home runs, 1,406 RBI, 1,335 walks and 1,175 strikeouts. He remains the all-time franchise leader in games, runs, hits, doubles, home runs, RBI and walks. The Rockies retired his #17 on Aug. 17, 2014, the first uniform number to be retired in franchise history.

He represented the Rockies at the All-Star Game five times (2000-04), earned three Gold Gloves (2001-02, 2004) and won four Silver Slugger Awards (2000-03) across his stellar career.

Clint Hurdle

Special Assistant to the General Manager

The all-time winningest manager in franchise history, Clint Hurdle returned to the Rockies organization as a special assistant to the general manager prior to the 2022 season. In this role, Hurdle assists across all areas of baseball operations, primarily in player development and scouting.

Hurdle managed the Rockies across parts of eight seasons from 2002-2009, the longest tenured manager in franchise history. His 1,159 games managed and 534 wins as a manager are both the most in franchise history. In 2007, Hurdle led the Rockies to the World Series as the club captured the first National League pennant in franchise history. The 2007 club won 11 straight games in September and 21 of 22 games leading to the World Series before falling in the Fall Classic to the Boston Red Sox.

Between his return to the Rockies and his managerial stint, Hurdle managed the Pittsburgh Pirates for nine seasons from 2011-2019, compiling a 735-720 record while leading the Pirates to three playoff appearances. Hurdle was named the 2013 National League Manager of the Year after leading the Pirates to a 94-68 record and their first postseason appearance since 1992. All told, Hurdle's 2,615 games managed between the Rockies and the Pirates are the 30th most in MLB history.

Prior to becoming the Rockies' manager on April 26, 2002, replacing Buddy Bell, Hurdle spent five-plus seasons as the club's hitting coach under Don Baylor, Jim Leyland and Buddy Bell. Prior to becoming hitting coach in 1997, Hurdle served as the club's Minor League hitting instructor from 1994-96.

Before he joined the Rockies organization, Hurdle managed in the New York Mets system for six seasons from 1988-93. This immediately followed a 10-year Major League career as an outfielder with the Kansas City Royals (1977-81), Cincinnati Reds (1982), New York Mets (1983, 1985, 1987) and St. Louis Cardinals (1986). He was originally drafted by Kansas City in the first round (ninth overall) of the 1975 June Draft out of Merritt Island High School in Merritt Island, Fla.

Damon Iannelli

Assistant Director - Scouting

Damon Iannelli is in his 29th season with the Rockies working in various scouting roles. He started scouting the Deep South in June of 1995, adding crosschecking to his duties in 2014. In his current role, Iannelli covers the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico, while still crosschecking and scouting.

Iannelli was awarded the 2018 Herb Hippauf Scouting Award, presented annually to the individual that exemplifies loyalty, dedication, honesty and a commitment to doing what is in the best interest of the Colorado Rockies. He was also named the Rockies Scout of the Year in 2000 and 2012, and Southeast Scout Association Scout of the Year in 2009 and 2014. He has signed 16 players who have reached the Majors, including All-Stars David Dahl,

Corey Dickerson, Dexter Fowler, Will Harris and Brad Hawpe.

Born in Whittier, Calif., Iannelli played baseball at Wallace Dothan Junior College in 1986 and Southeastern Louisiana from 1987-89. In 2021, he was named to the Southeastern All 1980s Team as one of the pitchers. He received a bachelor's degree from Southern Mississippi and an education degree from Mississippi College.

Damon and his wife Lisa, a first grade school teacher, reside in Flowood, Miss., with their daughter, Nicole, a graduate of Mississippi State, and son, Joseph, who attends Mississippi State.

Brian Jones

Director - Research & Development

The 2024 campaign marks Brian Jones' second season as the director of research and development after spending 16 seasons as Major League video coordinator. 2024 is his 23rd overall season with the franchise after he was originally hired by the Rockies in 2002.

In his role, "Jonesy" oversees all internal software development, third-party technology and baseball research to support decision making related to player evaluation, player development, roster construction and in-game strategy.

A native of Stillwater, Okla., Jones is a graduate of Oklahoma State University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in management information systems. Jones worked in the OSU athletic department all four years as a student, helping with video for the baseball, basketball and football teams.

Jones resides in Centennial with his wife Courtney and daughters, Everett and Maddox.

Joe Little

Advanced Scout

Joe Little enters his 17th season with the Rockies, his third season in an advance scouting role after spending the 2020-2021 seasons working as a professional scout for the club. In this role, Little also collaborates with the research and development staff in the advance scouting of Rockies opponents. Together, they work closely with the coaching staff, Major League video coordinator and players on breaking down opponents in order to gain a competitive advantage.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Little pitched parts of three seasons in the Tampa Bay Rays organization after being drafted in the 26th round of the 2003 First-Year Player Draft out of the University of Arizona.

Little is a graduate of Arvada (Colo.) High School and received his bachelor's degree from the University of Arizona in interdisciplinary studies with an emphasis in applied political economy (2007). Little also attended MLB Scout School and received his scouting certificate in 2012.

Joe and his wife Leah reside in Arvada, Colo., with their two young boys, Oscar and Otis.

Amir Mamdani

Manager - Baseball Operations

Amir Mamdani enters his third season in the Rockies' baseball operations department. In this role, Mamdani supports the baseball operations group in a variety of areas, including player valuation, salary arbitration and contract research.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Mamdani spent the 2021 season in the Washington Nationals' organization, as a member of the club's baseball operations group. Previously, Mamdani spent two stints in the baseball strategy group of Major League Baseball in 2019 and 2020, focusing on league economics and assisting clubs through the arbitration process.

Born and raised in New York City, Mamdani graduated from Harvard University with a degree in political science.

Sterling Monfort

Director - Professional Scouting

Sterling Monfort enters his third year as the director of professional scouting in his 14th year with the Rockies. In his current role, he oversees the day to day operations of the pro scouting department, evaluates the Rockies' Major and Minor League clubs and opposing players for acquisitions, and collects information from the entire pro scouting staff to assist General Manager Bill Schmidt and Director of Player Development Chris Forbes in the player acquisition process for both the Major and Minor Leagues.

Prior to moving to his current role, Monfort served four seasons as the assistant director of scouting operations, as well as four seasons as a scouting/field advisor, assisting in all aspects of the amateur scouting department. He also served each of the past three seasons as an area scout covering the Colorado and Wyoming territories, spent 2020 and 2021 as the area scout for Southern California, and was the area scout for Northern California in 2019. He also earned the Herb Hippauf Scouting Award in 2019, voted on by the Rockies scouting department.

Monfort previously spent two seasons working for the Rockies grounds crew and one year as the coaching assistant for the Grand Junction Rockies.

Monfort graduated from Eaton High School (Colo.), where he played varsity baseball all four years. He earned a bachelor's degree in tourism management and a master's degree in management from Arizona State University's W.P. Carey School of Business.

Julianna Rubin

Manager - Baseball Operations

Julianna Rubin is in her third season with the Rockies, previously serving as the Baseball Operations Fellow through the MLB Diversity Fellowship Program before earning her role as a coordinator of baseball operations. She primarily helps manage contract, roster and salary arbitration issues.

Prior to joining the Rockies, she was the vice president of business & legal affairs with Steinberg Sports & Entertainment. There she oversaw all legal agreements, intellectual property for the firm and its clients, as well as aided in daily business matters.

Born and raised in Port St. Lucia, Fla., Rubin was admitted to the Florida Bar in 2022.

She graduated from the University of Miami School of Law in spring of 2022 with her J.D and LL.M. in entertainment, arts and sports law. Rubin completed her bachelor's degree in sport management from Baldwin Wallace University where she was a member of the varsity soccer team.

Jesse Stender

Assistant Director - Player Development

Jesse Stender is in his 12th year in the player development department, his third as the assistant director of player development after previously spending three seasons as the manager of Minor League operations. He previously served as the coordinator of Minor League operations for five years. Working alongside Chris Forbes, he assists in all aspects of the Minor League system.

This is Stender's 11th year as a full-time member of the Rockies front office, which followed two years of part-time work between the ticketing and player development departments. He was the recipient of the 2017 P.J. Carey Player Development award and was recognized as the organization's Employee of the Month in September 2015.

Stender graduated from the University of Colorado in May 2011. He earned a bachelor's degree in business marketing and finished at the top of his class in CU's Business of Sports Certificate Program. Stender attended ThunderRidge High School in Highlands Ranch, Colo., playing baseball and basketball.

Brandon Stone

Coordinator - Performance Science

Brandon Stone is in his first year as the coordinator of performance science. Prior to joining the organization, Stone was the director of sport science at the University of Oklahoma and the sport science coordinator for the Toronto Blue Jays. In his current role, Stone will oversee "The Lab", the pitching and hitting labs at Salt River Fields. Stone will also have responsibilities with in-game biomechanics data.

Stone is from Fort Collins, Colo. and holds a PhD from the University of Oklahoma and resides in Phoenix, Ariz. with his wife Amy and their sons Beau and Wheeler.

Jack Voigt

Analyst - Research & Development

Jack Voigt enters his third season as a research and development analyst after joining the Rockies in early 2022. In this role, Jack supplements player acquisition, evaluation and development decisions through data-driven insights.

Prior to joining the Rockies, Voigt spent a handful of years at the University of North Carolina Greensboro where he was a member of the baseball team, earning All-Southern Conference Honor Roll honors as a senior in 2021. Voigt also went on to serve as a graduate assistant on the coaching staff.

He received an undergraduate degree in economics and a master's degree in informatics and analytics. He was born and raised in Ankeny, Iowa.

2024 COLORADO ROCKIES

MANAGER

BUD BLACK 10

Opening Day Age: 66

Born: June 30, 1957 in San Mateo, Calif.

Residence: Castle Pines, Colo.

Managing Experience: 16 Years

Named Manager: Nov. 7, 2016

COACHING CAREER: Bud Black enters his eighth season as manager of the Colorado Rockies, his 17th season overall as a Major League manager ... is the seventh manager in Rockies franchise history.

- On Feb. 15, 2023, it was announced that Black and the Rockies agreed to terms on a one-year contract extension through the 2024 season.
- Is 1,125-1,269 overall as a manager ... his 1,125 wins entering 2024 are the 55th-most in Major League history, the third-most among active managers behind Bruce Bochy (2,093) and Bob Melvin (1,517).
- On April 10, 2022 with a win over the Dodgers, Black became the 66th manager in Major League history to reach 1,000 wins.
- Has gone 476-556 as the Rockies manager with a .461 winning percentage ... his 1,032 games managed and 476 wins are both the second-most in franchise history trailing Clint Hurdle (1,159 games, 534 wins).
- Along with his 1,362 games managed with the Padres from 2007-15, Black is one of 12 managers in MLB history to manage at least 1,000 games with two different clubs, joining Leo Durocher (three teams), Tony La Russa (three teams), Sparky Anderson, Bochy, Terry Francona, Bucky Harris, Hurdle, Jim Leyland, Gene Mauch, Bill McKechnie and Bobby Valentine.
- Led the Rockies to consecutive postseason appearances in 2017 and 2018, the first time the Rockies reached the playoffs in back-to-back seasons in franchise history.
- Named a National League Manager of the Year finalist in 2017 and 2018.
- Spent the 2016 season as special assistant to the general manager for the Los Angeles Angels.
- Prior to joining the Angels front office, Black spent eight seasons and part of a ninth (2007-15) as the manager of the San Diego Padres, where his 649 managerial wins are second-most in Padres history.
- Named National League Manager of the Year in 2010, after guiding the Padres to a 90-72 record and a second-place finish in the National League West.
- Served as the pitching coach for the Angels for seven seasons (2000-06) ... during his tenure, the Angels advanced to the playoffs three times and were the 2002 World Series champions.
- Previously spent four years in the Cleveland Indians organization as both a special assistant to the general manager (1996-97, 1999) and as a pitching coach for Triple-A Buffalo (1998).

PLAYING CAREER: Played in parts of 15 seasons with Seattle (1981), Kansas City (1982-88), Cleveland (1988-90, 1995), Toronto (1990) and San Francisco (1991-94).

- Drafted by the Seattle Mariners in the 17th round of the 1979 First-Year Player Draft.
- Over his 15 seasons in the Major Leagues, went 121-116 with a 3.84 ERA ... made his Major League debut on Sept. 5, 1981 as a member of the Seattle Mariners.
- Was the starting pitcher for the Royals during the "Pine Tar Game" on July 24, 1983.
- Won a career-high 17 games in 1984, with a career-low 3.12 ERA, a career-high eight complete games and an American League-best 1.128 WHIP.
- Made 33 starts for the 1985 World Series Champion Kansas City Royals, including one start and one relief appearance in the World Series.

PERSONAL: Harry "Bud" Ralston Black ... he and his wife Nanette (Nan) have two daughters, Jamie Davis (Andy) and Jessie, and three grandchildren: Harper and twins Beau and Maggie ... Bud and Nan reside in Castle Pines, Colo. during the season and San Diego, Calif. in the offseason.

- Born in San Mateo, Calif., Black is a graduate of Mark Morris High School in Longview, Wash.
- Attended and played two seasons of college baseball at Lower Columbia Junior College (1976-77) in Longview ... went on to play two seasons at San Diego State University (1978-79), where he earned his bachelor's degree in finance and became a 1992 inductee into the SDSU Aztec Hall of Fame.
- At SDSU, Black was a teammate of Hall of Famer Tony Gwynn.

Colorado Rockies Medical Staff

Keith Dugger

Director of Medical Operations & Head Athletic Trainer

Keith Dugger enters his 20th season as head athletic trainer after being named to the post on Nov. 18, 2004. "Duggie", who spent six seasons as the club's assistant trainer, is the third head trainer in franchise history.

The 2024 season will be Dugger's 32nd with the Rockies organization and 34th in professional baseball. Dugger spent six seasons in the Rockies' Minor League system before being promoted to assistant trainer on Nov. 1, 1998. He joined Colorado after three years (1990-92) as a trainer in the Padres organization, and has also worked in both the Arizona Fall League and Hawaiian Winter League.

In 2003, he and Tom Probst were named Major League Training Staff of the Year by their peers. Dugger was also named the National League's All-Star Game trainer for the 2010 game in Anaheim and for the 2021 All-Star Game in Denver. He also served as the trainer for the 2018 All-Star Tour in Japan.

Dugger previously served on the Executive Board and currently serves on the MLB Advisory Committee, the Pitchsmart Advisory Committee and is the National League representative for Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society (PBATS).

A graduate of San Diego State University in 1988, Keith and his wife Shannon reside in Castle Pines, Colo., with their daughter Tianna. The pair's son, Cashel, is in his first season (2023-24) as a catcher at UCLA and was the 2023 Colorado 5A State Player of the Year.

Kunio Nakatani

Team Massage Therapist

Kunio Nakatani is in his 17th season as the Rockies' team massage therapist and acupuncturist. He earned his master's degree in oriental medicine from SAMRA University in 2002 and he has been practicing acupuncture and massage for more than 20 years.

Nakatani is a doctor in Oriental Medicine by NCCAOM (National Certification Commission for Acupuncture and Oriental Medicine) and he is a state licensed acupuncturist in Colorado and California.

Prior to working for the Rockies, Nakatani worked as an interpreter in Japanese and English for the Texas Rangers for two seasons (2006-07). Kunio currently resides in Denver.

Gabe Bauer

Director of Physical Performance

Gabe Bauer begins his 10th season as the Rockies' director of physical performance. Bauer served as the organization's Minor League physical performance coordinator for six seasons (2009-14) and the physical performance coach prior to that (2007-08).

A native of Stevens Point, Wis., he received his bachelor's degree from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point and his master's degree from St. Cloud State University. He is a registered strength and conditioning coach with distinction (RSCC*D) and certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Bauer and his wife Cierra reside in Castle Rock, Colo., with their daughter Ellie and son Greyson.

Mike Jasperson

Physical Performance Coach

Mike Jasperson enters his 15th season with the Rockies, his 10th season as the Major League physical performance coach.

Originally from Salt Lake City, Utah, "Jaspy" graduated with a bachelor's degree in exercise science from Colorado State University-Pueblo, where he played baseball his junior and senior years. After graduating, he interned at the University of Denver with the strength and conditioning department. He is a registered strength and conditioning coach (RSCC) and certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

Jasperson and his wife, Jordan, welcomed their first child, son Jess, in August 2023 ... the family resides in Phoenix, Ariz. during the offseason.

Scott Murayama

Major League Rehab Coordinator

Scott Murayama begins his 24th season with the Colorado Rockies and his third as Major League rehabilitation coordinator. Previously, he served for 18 seasons as the Minor League rehab coordinator. In that position, he was responsible for the injured Major League players in Denver and helped with daily duties as an athletic trainer while also supervising all medical and injury issues with the eight Minor League teams.

From 2001-04, he was the athletic trainer for the Rockies Short-Season Tri-City team in the Northwest League. In 2005, he was promoted to Minor League Rehab coordinator. Murayama graduated from Colorado State University in 1998 with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sports science with a minor in anatomy and neurobiology. He is a Colorado native, attended Bear Creek High School, and currently resides in Littleton, Colo.

Heath Townsend

Assistant Athletic Trainer

Heath Townsend enters his fifth season in Major League Baseball after 20 seasons in the Minors. He received an undergraduate degree in athletic training from the University of West Alabama in 1996 and a Master of Arts degree in health, physical education and recreation from the University of North Alabama in 1998.

Townsend joined the Rockies in 2000 and has since served as the athletic trainer for numerous Rockies affiliates. Townsend was named the 2001 South Atlantic League Athletic Trainer of the Year and the 2010 Pacific Coast League Trainer of the Year. In addition to these honors, Townsend has also represented his clubs in numerous Minor League All-Star Games as an athletic trainer.

Townsend served as the Rockies Triple-A athletic trainer from 2006-19. He was asked to assist the Rockies staff for postseason play in 2007 and 2009. Townsend enjoys hunting, fishing and watching football. He currently resides in Dixons Mills, Ala., with his wife, Becky and son, Parker.

Andy Stover

Assistant Athletic Trainer & Workman's Compensation Coordinator

Andy Stover begins his third season in Major League Baseball after spending 16 years in the Minor Leagues. Stover received a bachelor's degree in athletic training from Ashland University (Ohio) and a master's degree in education from Defiance College (Ohio).

After spending the 2005 season as an intern with the Philadelphia Phillies, he joined the Colorado Rockies in 2006. Stover was the Athletic Trainer for Short Season Tri-City from 2006-12 and was selected as the Northwest League Athletic Trainer of the Year by his peers in 2008 and 2009.

Stover was named assistant minor league rehab coordinator in 2013, working alongside

Scott Murayama to oversee the healthcare of the Player Development Department and added the responsibilities of manager, Scottsdale operations in 2020. He was selected to serve as the National League athletic trainer for the 2021 SiriusXM Futures Game held in Denver.

In his free time, he enjoys hiking, paddle boarding and backpacking in the Grand Canyon. Stover and his wife, Lauren currently reside in Castle Rock with their three boys.

Colorado Rockies Team Doctors

Dr. Thomas Noonan

Medical Director

Thomas J. Noonan, M.D., was named the Colorado Rockies' medical director on Sept. 24, 2004. Dr. Noonan has been with the Rockies medical team since 2002 as an associate orthopedist, working out of the Steadman Hawkins Clinic in Denver.

Prior to joining the Rockies medical staff, Noonan gained his fellowship in sports medicine at the Steadman Hawkins Clinic in Vail, Colo., and then spent two years as an orthopedic surgeon with Charlotte Orthopedic Specialists in Charlotte, N.C.

Noonan received his undergraduate degree at Princeton University, where he played football. He earned his medical degree and completed his residency at Duke University. He graduated in 1984 from C.E. Jordan High School in Durham, N.C.

Colorado Rockies Clubhouse Staff

Mike Pontarelli

Manager - Major League Clubhouse

Mike "Tiny" Pontarelli is in his eighth season as the Rockies' home clubhouse manager. In 2019, Pontarelli was voted the Home Clubhouse Manager of the Year by the Major League Baseball Clubhouse Managers Association.

This will be Pontarelli's 18th season overall in the Rockies home clubhouse. He previously served as the visiting clubhouse manager for two seasons (2015-16). Pontarelli's experience also includes serving as the assistant to the director of clubhouse operations, where he oversaw the club's equipment inventory and budget. He got his start with the Rockies as a bat boy and clubhouse attendant in the visiting clubhouse.

Pontarelli was born in Denver and currently resides in Arvada with his wife, Ashley, and daughter, Gabriella Rose, born on March 21, 2022. He is a graduate of Arvada West High School and Regis University. He also played baseball while attending Monterey (Calif.) Peninsula College.

Patrick Gill

Coordinator - Home Clubhouse

Patrick Gill enters his 13th season with the Rockies and his third in his current role as home clubhouse coordinator. Gill will also serve as the umpire attendant for the fourth consecutive season. Prior to this role, Gill worked eight seasons as a home clubhouse attendant and two seasons in the promotions and special events department.

A Denver native, Gill is a graduate of Pomona High School where he played baseball and was a 2006 HS Branch Rickey Award recipient. Gill received a degree in journalism and a minor in recreation and communications from the University of Northern Colorado.

Patrick and his wife, Meagan, reside in Thornton, Colo., with their son, Luca.

Alan Bossart

Visiting Clubhouse - Purchase Manager

Alan Bossart is in his eighth season in his current role with the visiting clubhouse/purchasing manager duties after three seasons as the director of home clubhouse operations.

Bossart was previously the visiting clubhouse manager from 2007-13, where he and his staff were awarded the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award for the National League Visiting Clubhouse of the Year in 2009. One of the club's original employees, Bossart is beginning his 33rd year with the Rockies. Previously, he oversaw the promotions, special events, in-game entertainment and TV/radio broadcasting departments.

Bossart is a 53-year resident of Denver and was a member of the Colorado Baseball Commission, charged with the task of bringing Major League Baseball to the city. He attended South High School, where he played baseball and soccer, earning all-conference honors in soccer. Bossart attended Colorado College and the University of Denver, studying business management.

Born in Northampton, Mass., Alan and his wife Kim reside in Centennial, Colo., and have three boys: Kyle, Corey and CJ.

Tyler Hines

Culinary Nutritionist

Tyler Hines begins his seventh season with the Colorado Rockies organization. Prior to joining the Rockies, the Johnson and Wales University graduate most recently worked as the assistant nutritionist for the Denver Broncos.

Hines began his career in the food industry at the age of 14. After playing sports in high school and college, Hines developed a deeper passion for sports nutrition and desired to have an impact on the day-to-day health and nutrition of professional athletes.

He currently resides in Denver, Colo.

Brian Brown

Assistant - Culinary Nutritionist

Brian Brown enters his fourth season with the Rockies as the assistant to the culinary nutritionist. Brown received an associate degree from the Art Institute in Atlanta, Ga., while pursuing certifications in nutrition and sports nutrition through the ISSA program.

Brown began his culinary career at age 18, working under the Fifth Group Restaurants company in Atlanta at Bold Catering and Design. He was there for six years, working his way up to event chef manager. Brian then went on to be one of the head chefs for the visiting clubhouse at SunTrust Park during its inaugural year, and then the head chef for the Rockies' Spring Training facility at Salt River Fields in Scottsdale, Arizona.

Colorado Rockies Grounds Crew

Mark Razum

Head Groundskeeper

Mark Razum is in his 30th season as head groundskeeper for Coors Field, and his 46th year in the profession. Razum and his staff have built one of the best playing surfaces in professional sports at the corner of 20th and Blake.

"Raz" recently completed a two-year term as president of The Association of Major League Baseball Groundskeepers. In 1998, Razum's peers named him the Turf/Grass Professional of the Year, an award presented by the Rocky Mountain Turf/Grass Association. He was recognized, in part, for the star design he and his staff cut into the Coors Field grass for the 1998 All-Star Game.

Prior to joining the Rockies in October 1994, Razum served six years as head of the Oakland Athletics' grounds crew at the Oakland-Alameda County Coliseum, where players voted the field the best in the American League for three consecutive seasons (1992-94). He spent seven years in charge of spring surfaces for Oakland (1984-89) and the California Angels (1982-84). His groundskeeping career began in 1978 at Municipal Stadium in his native Cleveland, Ohio.

- Made his season debut on May 5, recovering from a torn ACL in his left knee suffered in 2022 ... first start since Aug. 18, 2022.
- In two rehab outings with Triple-A Albuquerque went 0-1 with a 9.95 ERA (6.1 IP, 7 ER) ... issued three walks and struck out seven with the Isotopes.
- Held the Mets to one earned run on three hits through five frames in his first start but was tagged with the loss in a 1-0 game ... sole run allowed came on a Bradon Nimmo home run.
- Made his second start on May 10 at Pittsburgh and was removed after 2.2 innings due to injury ... placed on the IL on May 13 (retro to May 11) with a right elbow strain ... transferred to the 60-day IL on June 11 and underwent Tommy John surgery in early July.

2022: Made 19 starts in his sixth season with the Rockies, going 3-7 (Rockies 8-11) with a 5.07 ERA (92.1 IP, 52 ER) and eight quality starts before suffering a season-ending left ACL tear on Aug. 18.

- Logged eight starts of six or more innings, all of them quality ... recorded a 3.06 ERA (50.0 IP, 17 ER) in these outings while allowing an average of 0.54 home runs per nine ... Rockies went 5-3 across these starts.
- His .349 opponent batting average and 12.96 hits-per-nine-innings rate were the highest mark among MLB starters while his .504 opponent slugging was the third-highest (min. 15 GS) ... highest single-season opponent batting average in franchise history (min. 15 GS).
- Had tossed at least six innings in four consecutive starts (all quality starts) prior to tearing his ACL Aug. 18, pitching to a 3.86 ERA (25.2 IP, 11 ER) ... during that span, allowed only two home runs (0.70 HR/9).
- Was 3-2 with a 4.08 ERA (53.0 IP, 24 ER) in his 11 starts at Coors Field this season ... had a quality start in four of his last five outings after allowing six runs on 13 hits in the first game of the June 1 doubleheader against Miami ... outside of that outing, would have posted a 3.40 ERA (47.2 IP, 18 ER) at Coors Field this season.
- Went 0-5 with a 6.41 ERA (39.1 IP, 28 ER), nine walks and 29 strikeouts in eight road starts ... the Rockies lost seven of his eight road starts.
- From July 1, 2021 to July 28, 2022, walked two or fewer batters across 28 starts, the longest streak in franchise history (previous: 24 starts, Jeff Francis, June 21, 2012-April 10, 2013) ... snapped his streak with a three-walk outing on Aug. 1 at San Diego.

(SENZATELA, continued)

- Prior to his ACL injury, had two stints on the 15-day injured list, the first coming May 17-June 1 with a lower back strain and the second from July 2-22 with right shoulder inflammation
- Not counting the COVID-19 IL, his only season with at least two injured list stints came in 2018 with a right middle finger blister (July 13-22) and right shoulder inflammation (Aug. 5-18).

2021: Set career highs in innings (156.2) and strikeouts (105) while posting a 1.84 BB/9 rate, the fifth best mark in the Majors and the second-best in a single season in Rockies franchise history (min. 150 IP).

- Had spun at least six frames in nine-consecutive starts prior to his last outing of the season, eight of which were quality ... only allowed more than three earned runs once through this stretch (4, Sept. 21 vs. Los Angeles-NL) and never walked more than two batters ... one of four MLB pitchers in 2021 to record nine-straight outings with six or more frames, four or fewer earned runs and two or fewer walks, joining Sandy Alcantara, Logan Webb and Adam Wainwright ... second longest such streak in franchise history trailing Germán Márquez with a 12-game streak July 29-Sept. 26, 2018.
- Pitched six or more frames in 16 of his last 21 starts, going 3-6 with a 3.98 ERA (122.0 IP, 54 ER), six home runs, 21 walks and 83 strikeouts.
- Went 3-3 with a 3.97 ERA (90.2 IP, 40 ER) in 15 starts at home ... allowed just five home runs while limiting opponents to a .274 average.
- Finished 2021 with 0.50 home runs per nine innings at Coors Field (5 HR, 90.2 IP), the sixth-best single-season mark in franchise history (min. 12 GS) ... fifth-best clip for any pitcher at home in the Majors, fourth in the NL behind Corbin Burnes (0.31), Logan Webb (0.49), and Anthony DeSclafani (0.50).
- 0.69 HR/9 clip overall ranked as the fifth-lowest in the Majors (min. 25 GS) and is the eighth-best single-season mark in franchise history.
- 51.8 ground ball percentage ranked seventh in the NL (min. 25 GS).
- Had 18 starts of one or fewer walks through 4.2 or more innings pitched, setting a single-season club record.
- His four wins were the fewest for any Major League pitcher with 28 or more starts and his .286 winning percentage (4-10) was the lowest in the Majors (min. 150 IP).
- Rockies went 11-17 in his starts, 9-6 when his starts were quality.

2020: Led the Rockies' pitching staff both in wins (five) and ERA (3.44) across 12 starts.

- Went 3-0 with a 2.10 ERA (34.1 IP, 8 ER), five walks and 19 strikeouts across five home starts ... on the road, went 2-3 with a 4.62 ERA (39.0 IP, 20 ER), 13 walks and 22 strikeouts.
- Pitched Colorado's only complete game of the season on Sept. 15 vs. Oakland ... it was the first complete game for Rockies pitcher at home since Jon Gray's complete-game shutout on Sept. 17, 2016 vs. San Diego.
- Was one of three pitchers with multiple outings of eight or more innings (also: Kyle Hendricks, Aaron Nola).
- Made two scoreless outings (8.0 innings, Aug. 18 at Houston; 7.0 innings, Aug. 29 vs. San Diego) ... no other Rockies starter had a start in which he pitched seven or more scoreless innings.
- Made five starts in which he allowed one or fewer runs, all against teams that advanced to the postseason ... pitched at least six innings in each of those starts.
- According to the Elias Sports Bureau, he became the seventh Rockies since 2000 to win his first three starts of the season.

2019: Won a career-high 11 games in 25 starts, tied for the second-most starts on the club.

- Made his third career Opening Day roster, but began the season on the 10-day injured list with a blister infection in his right heel ... reinstated on April 15 and made 18 starts before being optioned to Triple-A Albuquerque on July 21 ... recalled on Aug. 25 and finished the season on the Rockies' active roster.
- Went 8-7 with a 6.29 ERA (93.0 IP, 65 ER) in 18 starts before being optioned on July 21 ... allowed 21 runs across 11 innings (17.18 ERA) in three starts prior to his option.
- Went 3-4 with a 7.96 ERA (31.2 IP, 28 ER) in seven starts after he was recalled on Aug. 25.
- Earned the win July 14 vs. Cincinnati at Coors Field, despite allowing eight runs across 5.1 innings ... became the second pitcher in franchise history to allow at least eight runs and still earn the win (also: Brian Bohanon, June 9, 1999 vs. Seattle) and the first pitcher in MLB to win while allowing at least eight runs since Cliff Lee at Texas on March 31, 2014 as a member of the Phillies.
- Allowed at least five runs in seven consecutive games June 28-Sept. 4, the longest streak in franchise history.
- Made seven total starts for Triple-A Albuquerque, including two rehab starts to begin the season ... went 1-1 with a 5.77 ERA (34.1 IP, 22 ER) overall.

2018: In 23 appearances with the Rockies, went 6-6 with a 4.38 ERA (90.1 IP, 44 ER), 30 walks and 69 strikeouts.

- As a starter, went 4-5 with a 3.95 ERA (73.0 IP, 32 ER) ... made 10 relief appearances, going 2-1 with a 6.23 ERA (17.1 IP, 12 ER), six walks and 14 strikeouts before being optioned to Triple-A on May 2.
- According to STATS, on April 27 at Miami, became the first relief pitcher in Rockies history and the first in the Major Leagues since Joe Niekro on Aug. 23, 1980 to earn the win and drive in the game's only run in a 1-0 victory ... it was also the first game in Rockies history in which all runs were driven in by a relief pitcher.
- In eight games with Triple-A Albuquerque, went 3-1 with a 2.15 ERA (37.2 IP, 9 ER), 30 walks and 69 strikeouts.
- Made his first career postseason appearance, starting Game 1 of the NLDS at Milwaukee ... pitched five innings and allowed two runs on three hits, with two walks and one strikeout.

2017: Made his first career Opening Day roster and made his Major League debut on April 6 at Milwaukee, getting a no-decision in a 2-1 win, allowing two hits, three walks and six strikeouts over five scoreless innings.

- Went 10-5 with a 4.68 ERA (134.2 IP, 70 ER) across 20 starts and 16 relief appearances ... his 102 strikeouts were the 11th-most by a Rockies rookie in a single season.
- National League Rookie of the Month for April, after going 3-1 with a 2.81 ERA (32.0 IP, 10 ER) in five starts ... finished the month first among Major League rookie starting pitchers in ERA and innings pitched, tied for first in wins and tied for fourth in strikeouts.

*Note: The Rockies opened their 1999 season in Monterrey, Mexico, with an 8-2 victory over the San Diego Padres. Although it was a neutral site, it counted as a road game in the standings. Therefore, the Rockies' true franchise road record in the state of California and at Qualcomm Stadium is one win fewer than what their franchise road record would be if their record against all California-based teams were cumulated.

UBALDO'S NO-NO

On April 17, 2010 at Turner Field, Ubaldo Jiménez pitched the first no-hitter in Rockies history.

- Jiménez's line: 9.0 IP, 0 H, 0 ER, 6 BB, 7 SO, 31 batters faced.
- Jiménez threw the first no-hitter in Colorado's 2,703rd game.
- Entering the game, four existing teams in MLB had not thrown a no-hitter: Colorado (est. 1993), Tampa Bay (est. 1998), San Diego (est. 1969) and New York-NL (est. 1962).
- Prior to this no-hitter, the deepest a Colorado pitcher had gone into a potential no-hitter was Jason Jennings, who went 6.2 innings without giving up a hit on Aug. 1, 2002 at Pittsburgh.
- Jiménez threw a career-high 128 pitches, one more than his previous high (127 pitches, June 12, 2009 vs. Seattle); he threw 72 strikes and his fastball averaged 96.8 mph.
- Jiménez faced 31 consecutive batters without allowing a hit.
- When he reached 83 pitches, Jiménez had thrown 42 balls and 41 strikes, but he did not walk any batters after the fifth inning.
- Jiménez was the fourth Dominican player to throw a no-hitter—entering the 2021 season, seven Dominican-born players have thrown no-hitters, the most of any nationality other than from the U.S.A.

CYCLES

Rockies Cycles (9)

Dante Bichette

June 10, 1998 vs. Texas Rangers (W, 9-8, 10 inn.) - After going hitless in his first two at-bats, Bichette doubled, homered, tripled and hit the game-winning 10th inning RBI single.

Neifi Perez

July 25, 1998 vs. St. Louis Cardinals (W, 5-2) - Perez doubled, tripled, singled and then homered on a 0-1 pitch in the seventh inning.

Todd Helton

June 19, 1999 vs. Florida Marlins (W, 10-2) - Helton cycled in only four trips to the plate; he doubled, singled, homered and tripled off the right-field wall in the seventh.

Mike Lansing

June 18, 2000 vs. Arizona Diamondbacks (W, 19-2) - Lansing's four-inning cycle is believed to be the fastest in Major League history: triple, home run, double, single.

Troy Tulowitzki

Aug. 10, 2009 vs. Chicago Cubs (W, 11-5) - Tulowitzki hit a home run, single, double and triple to become the first shortstop in MLB history to go 5-for-5 (or better) and have at least seven RBI in same game.

Carlos González

July 31, 2010 vs. Chicago Cubs (W, 6-5) - González hit a single, triple, double and walk-off home run to become the fourth player to complete the cycle on a walk-off home run.

Michael Cuddyer

Aug. 17, 2014 vs. Cincinnati Reds, Game 2 (W, 10-6) - Cuddyer hit a triple, home run, single and double to become the 30th player in MLB history with multiple cycles and the third player in MLB history with a cycle in each league, joining Bob Watson and John Olerud.

Nolan Arenado

June 18, 2017 (Father's Day) vs. San Francisco Giants (W, 7-5) - Arenado hit a triple, single, double and walk-off home run to become the fifth player in Major League history to complete the cycle on a walk-off home run. It was the first cycle to be completed with the batter's team trailing in Major League history.

Charlie Blackmon

September 30, 2018 vs. Washington Nationals (W, 12-0) - Blackmon led off the game with a triple, then hit a home run, single and double to become the first player in Major League history to cycle in the 162nd game of the season.

Opponents Cycles (10)

John Mabry

May 18, 1996 vs. St. Louis Cardinals (W, 9-8) - Mabry was the 15th Cardinal to hit for the cycle and first since 1964 (Ken Boyer) to do it in natural order (single, double, triple, home run).

Craig Biggio

April 8, 2002 vs. Houston Astros (L, 4-8) - Biggio became the sixth player in Astros history to hit for the cycle—single, triple, home run, double—and he accomplished the feat in the Rockies' 2002 home opener.

Fred Lewis

May 13, 2007 vs. San Francisco Giants (L, 2-15) - Lewis hit a double, home run, triple and single to become the fourth player in Major League history to hit his first career home run as part of a cycle.

Pablo Sandoval

Sept. 15, 2011 vs. San Francisco Giants (L, 5-8) - Sandoval became the 25th player in Giants history to hit for the cycle and the fourth Giants third baseman to hit for cycle.

Scott Hairston

April 27, 2012 vs. New York Mets (W, 18-9) - This was the 10th cycle in Mets history—single, home run, triple, double—and Hairston's four hits tied his career-high.

Shin-Soo Choo

July 21, 2015 vs. Texas Rangers (L, 0-9) - Collecting a career-high tying four hits, Choo hit a double, home run, single and triple for the eighth cycle in Rangers franchise history.

Matt Kemp

Aug. 14, 2015 vs. San Diego Padres (L, 5-9) - For the first cycle in Padres history, Kemp recorded his first-ever cycle with a two-run home run in the first inning, a single in the third, a double in the seventh and triple in the ninth.

Wil Myers

April, 10, 2017 vs. San Diego Padres (L, 3-5) - The second cycle in Padres history and the first in MLB during the 2017 season, Myers hit a single, double, home run and triple. He had previously fallen a triple short of the cycle seven different times in his career.

Trea Turner

April, 25, 2017 vs. Washington Nationals (L, 12-15) - Turner hit his first career cycle and collected a career-high seven RBI in the game, hitting a single, double, home run and triple.

Trea Turner

July 23, 2019 vs. Washington Nationals (L, 1-11) - For the second time in three seasons, Trea Turner cycled against the Rockies, becoming the fourth player in Major League history to cycle twice against the same team. For this second cycle, Turner hit a home run, single, triple and finished with a double.

GAME 163, 2007

On Oct. 1, 2007, the Rockies vs. San Diego Padres matchup at Coors Field marked the seventh one-game playoff in Major League history. In the tiebreaker, Colorado took its first lead of the game into the sixth inning, battling back from a 5-3 deficit heading into the third inning. With the Rockies leading 6-5 with two outs in the eighth inning, Matt Holliday's miscue in left field allowed the Padres to score the tying run, pushing the game into extra innings. It stayed knotted at six until San Diego broke the tie with a Scott Hairston two-run home run off Jorge Julio in the 13th inning. With an 8-6 lead, the Padres called on Trevor Hoffman to try and seal a victory for San Diego. With their backs against the wall and the Rockies' season on the line, Kazuo Matsui led off the bottom half of the frame with a double and then scored on Troy Tulowitzki's double to bring the Rockies within a run. Holliday followed with a first-pitch triple, scoring Tulowitzki to tie the game at eight. The Padres chose to intentionally walk Todd Helton in order to face Jamey Carroll with Holliday and the winning run on third. Carroll hit the first pitch he saw from Hoffman to right field, where Brian Giles caught the ball and threw home to try and cut down Holliday. Holliday tagged from third and, diving head first into home plate, decisively beat Giles' throw to win the game, 9-8 in 13 innings, sending them to the postseason.

LOW-RUN GAMES AT COORS FIELD

After no 1-0 games over the park's first 10 years, there have now been 12 1-0 contests at Coors Field since 2005. The first came on July 9, 2005, when the Rockies beat the Padres 1-0. It happened in the 847th regular season game in the facility's history; according to the Elias Sports Bureau, the 846 total contests without a 1-0 game is the longest span of any park in Major League history. The previous record was 635 games, held by the Philadelphia Athletics of the American Association from 1882 to 1891. On Sept. 14, 2008 vs. Los Angeles, the Rockies defeated the Dodgers 1-0 in 10 innings; this game was scoreless through nine innings—a first in Coors Field history. According to the Elias Sports Bureau, that game was the first game ever played at either Mile High Stadium or Coors Field that was scoreless at the end of the ninth inning (previously at Coors Field: 0-0 after eight innings on June 11 vs. San Francisco). The Rockies played 1,257 previous games in Colorado in their history, the longest streak of home games without a 0-0 score through nine innings for any team since the Athletics played 1,615 straight home games in which at least one team scored before extra frames; the A's streak lasted more than 20 years (June 22, 1947 through Sept. 3, 1967), spanning the club's relocation from Philadelphia to Kansas City. Coincidentally, the Rockies lost 1-0 to the Texas Rangers in the inaugural game at Globe Life Field on July 24, 2020.

History of Baseball in Denver

Although Major League Baseball did not arrive until 1993, professional baseball in the Rocky Mountain Region can be traced back to 1886 with the advent of the Western League. The Denver Bears were crowned the first league champions and baseball in the Mile High City would go on to become an off-and-on occurrence over the next 60 years, with the game becoming a permanent fixture in 1948.

Built in 1948, Mile High Stadium was known as Bears Stadium until 1969. Denver finally became a Triple-A city in 1955, when the American League's Philadelphia A's moved to Kansas City, thus allowing the Bears' owners, the Howsam family, the opportunity to purchase the then-homeless New York Yankees' Minor League affiliate for $90,000. The Yankees tabbed an untried Ralph Houk to manage the Triple-A club and were led by the likes of Bobby Richardson, Tony Kubek and Ralph Terry. The first Triple-A champions in Denver history were the 1960 Bears, piloted by Charlie Metro.

When the Broncos became a charter member of the American Football League in 1959, the south stands (8,100 seats) and portable east stands (9,616 seats) were added to give a capacity of 34,657 for football. The Broncos began play in 1960.

From 1963-68, the Bears were a member of the Pacific Coast League. The 1968 entry was the affiliate of the Minnesota Twins, managed by the fiery Billy Martin and led by Graig Nettles and Bob Oliver.

After Denver voters turned down a stadium bond issue to build an all-purpose metropolitan stadium in 1967, a non-profit group began a fund-raising drive with the goal of purchasing the stadium for the city. In February 1968, the group bought the stadium from Rocky Mountain Empire Sports for $1.8 million and presented it to the city. A 16,000-seat upper deck was immediately constructed over the west stands, raising the capacity to over 50,000. In December 1968, the stadium was renamed Denver Mile High Stadium. Further expansion of Mile High began in 1975 and was completed in 1977. Voters passed a $25 million bond issue in 1974 to expand the stadium from its capacity of 51,706 to 75,100. The construction of 60 penthouse suites atop the west stands brought the stadium to its final capacity of 76,098 in 1986.

The Bears moved to the American Association in 1969, which would stand as the home of all of the remaining Denver franchises until 1992. From 1970-83, the Bears established themselves as a championship franchise, winning five league crowns and three division titles. Graced by future big league stars such as Tim Wallach and Tim Lincecum, the Bears drew record crowds night after night, including a 1982 fireworks night crowd of 65,666, which established a Minor League record.

Under new ownership, the Zephyrs came to Denver in 1985, as an affiliate of the Cincinnati Reds. The likes of Eric Davis, Paul O'Neill and Barry Larkin displayed their talents in Denver before moving on to prominent Major League careers.

The Z's joined the Milwaukee Brewers system in 1987 and remained a Brewers affiliate until 1992. One of the most memorable moments in the Zephyrs' tenure at Mile High was a 582' home run by Joey Meyer into the upper deck of the east stands. One seat in the all-blue section was painted orange to signify the landing location of Meyer's home run. John Jaha later sent one near Meyer's homer, just a few feet to the left. Gary Sheffield and Greg Vaughn were some of the other fan favorites of the later Zephyr clubs.

When Major League owners unanimously approved Denver and South Florida as baseball's two newest franchises on July 5, 1991, not only did that date mark the conception of the Rockies but also the end of over 100 years of Minor League baseball in Denver.

A Major League record crowd of 80,227 packed Mile High for the first home game in Rockies franchise history, April 9, 1993 vs. Montreal. Eric Young Sr. hit a home run to lead off the bottom of the first inning as the Rockies cruised to an 11-4 victory, signifying the beginning of big league baseball in the Rocky Mountain region.

After drawing 4,483,350 fans in the 1993 inaugural season, the Rockies were on pace to shatter that mark in 1994, averaging 58,598 through 56 home dates, which would have put the season ending mark at 4,687,840, if it were not for the strike that ended the 1994 season in August. In those first two seasons at Mile High, the Rockies had 52 occasions when better than 60,000 paid to watch baseball; 21 times the crowd eclipsed 70,000.

The Rockies moved into Coors Field in 1995 after shattering nearly every attendance mark in the books. In 135 dates at Mile High, the Rockies drew 7,701,861 fans, an average of 57,051 per game.

Demolition of Mile High was completed in March 2002. On Aug. 29, 2006, the Rockies and the Rocky Mountain Chapter of SABR unveiled a plaque commemorating Bears/Mile High Stadium, and a home plate made of steel was placed on the exact location of home plate at Mile High, which is currently in a parking lot adjacent to the Broncos' current home stadium.

- Hit .303 (57-for-188) with nine home runs while playing in Rockies wins (54 games).
- Posted a .998 fielding percentage, committing two errors on the year ... fielding percentage ranked eighth among all Major Leaguers (min. 100 games) and first among all first basemen.
- Total .997 fielding percentage from 2007-13 ranked first among all National League first basemen.

2012: Recorded his 2,500th hit on Sept. 1 vs. Cincinnati ... started his 16th consecutive Opening Day (Colorado record).

- Played in his fewest games among his 16 full big league seasons in 2012 (69) due to a right hip injury that eventually required surgery and ended his season in early August.

- Had 11 extra-base hits and 16 RBI in April prior to injury ... owned an .886 OPS (.333 OBP, .552 SLG) in April, and finished with a .743 OPS for the season.
- Was one of two Rockies with two grand slams (also: Cuddyer) ... first grand slam came April 29 vs. New York-NL as a pinch-hitter and tied game at 4-4 ... was first career pinch-hit grand slam and second career pinch-hit home run.
- Notched his seventh career walk-off home run on April 14 vs. Arizona when he connected on a two-run shot with two outs in the ninth inning off J.J. Putz to give the Rockies an 8-7 victory.

2011: Added onto his career numbers, tallying a .302 (127-for-421) batting average with 14 home runs, 69 RBI and 27 doubles ... all personal bests since his 2009 season.

- Became the first MLB player to have at least 2,270 hits, 1,280 runs, 530 doubles, 330 home runs, 1,250 RBI and 1,200 walks all before playing his 2,000th career game.
- Became 15th active player to reach 2,000 games, June 30 vs. Chicago-AL.
- Committed three errors in his 119 games at first base in 2011, the fourth time in the last five years he had three errors or fewer in a season.
- .997 fielding percentage marked the eighth time in his career to have at least a .997-plus fielding percentage in a single-season.
- Was the National League's fourth-leading hitter prior to the All-Star break at .321 (87-for-271).
- Slashed .293/.364/.443 in 62 road games.

2010: Led Colorado with his 67 walks, his 12th straight season in which he drew at least 60 free passes (1999-2010).

- Finished second among National League players with at least 400 plate appearances by seeing an average of 4.35 pitches per plate appearance (a career-high).
- In August, he hit .307 (23-for-75) with five doubles, a triple, four home runs and 10 RBI in 22 games.
- Passed Hall of Famers Ricky Henderson, Joe Cronin, Ed Delahanty, Willie Mays, Ted Williams, Edgar Martinez and Ken Griffey Jr. on the all-time doubles list, finishing the season with 527 career doubles.
- Posted a .992 fielding percentage in 115 games at first base.

2009: A Comeback Player of the Year candidate, Helton hit .325 (177-for-544) with 15 home runs, and 86 RBI in 151 games.

- Finished above .300 for the 11th time in 12 full Major League seasons (1998-2009).
- Led all Rockies players with 177 hits ... had not led club in hits since 2005 (163).
- Ranked fourth in NL in average, third in OBP (.416) and sixth in times on base (268).
- Had .348 home average, third-best in NL ... hit .388 (45-for-116) in his final 31 home games.
- Had 38 doubles, his 11th 35-double season (10 straight from 1998-2007) of his career ... only two lefty hitters had more doubles in 2009 (Brad Hawpe, Andre Ethier).
- Reached 500 career doubles on July 22 vs. Arizona (off Jon Garland) to become the 50th player in MLB history with 500 doubles.
- Became 255th player in MLB history with 2000 hits with a single to left field off Jair Jurrjens in the third inning on May 19 at Atlanta.

2008: In a season shortened by injury, finished with his lowest totals in every offensive category since he saw his first Major League action in 1997.

- Was placed on 15-day disabled list with a strained lower back on July 4 and played two games after that date (both as a pinch hitter) ... transferred to 60-day disabled list Aug. 6 and missed a total of 62 games.
- Was hitting .266 (79-for-297) with seven home runs and 29 RBI in 81 games when he landed on the DL ... had reached base safely in 70 of 81 games and ranked ninth in the NL with 141 times on base at the time.
- Did not reach base April 11 at Arizona, ending an on-base streak of 41 consecutive regular season games since Aug. 28, 2007 (was the longest active streak in the Majors and longest consecutive game on-base streak of his career)
- In those 41 games, Helton owned a .381 (59-for-155) average, .478 on-base percentage, 59 hits, 28 walks, seven home runs and 30 runs scored.

2007: Hit .320 with 17 home runs and 91 RBI in 154 games for Colorado ... posted his fifth consecutive season with 40 or more doubles.

- Had 116 walks, the second-highest total in his career behind only 127 in 2004 ... ranked among NL leaders in average (9th), walks (2nd), and on-base percentage (2nd, .434).
- Hit his 300th career home run on Sept. 16 vs. Florida in fifth inning off Mauro Zarate.
- Had a trio of four-hit games, all on road: April 25 at New York-NL, May 27 at San Francisco and Aug. 31 at Arizona.
- Posted a .999 fielding percentage (two errors in 545 total chances), the highest mark of his career ... did not commit an error over his final 91 games, as his last error came June 14 at Boston.
- On Sept. 18 vs. Los Angeles-NL (Game two), hit a two-out, two-strike, two-run walk-off home run off Takashi Saito to beat the Dodgers and sweep the doubleheader ... the day's wins kept the Rockies alive in the playoff chase and ignited a franchise-record 11-game winning streak.
- Went 9-for-41 (.220) in the playoffs with two RBI ... hit .333 (3-for-16), drawing three walks in the World Series.

2006: Hit .302 with 15 home runs, 81 RBI, 40 doubles and 91 walks in 145 games, all starts at first base for Colorado ... started in all but three games for the Rockies while he was on the active roster.

- Ranked seventh in the NL in both on-base percentage and batting avg. w/RISP (.347).
- Was on the disabled list from April 20-May 4 with what was diagnosed as acute terminal ileitis.
- After being activated on May 5, batted just .236 (30-for-127) over 34 games through June 12 to drop his average to season-low .267.
- Beginning July 27, would hit .332 (79-for-238) over his final 60 games to finish at .302.
- Hit his 400th career double on Aug. 14 vs. Arizona in seventh inning off Claudio Vargas.

2005: Hit .320 with 20 home runs and 79 RBI in 144 games ... the year snapped a stretch of seven consecutive seasons in which Helton had hit over .315 with at least 25 home runs and 95 RBI.

- Had first career trip to the disabled list as he was on the shelf from July 26-Aug. 9 with a strained left calf muscle.
- Had fewest games (144), at-bats (509), hits (163), and RBI (79) of any full season in his career to that point.
- Hit .383 (92-for-240) over final 69 games beginning July 1, highest average in the Majors in that span, 24 points higher than the next closest batter (Cleveland's Victor Martinez, .359).
- Recorded Major League-best .445 on-base percentage, first time in his career to lead the Majors in that category and first player other than Barry Bonds to take OBP honors since 2000 (Oakland's Jason Giambi, .476).
- Led team in slugging (.534), runs (92), hits (163), doubles, homers, walks, extra base hits (67), multi-hit games (46) and total bases (272).
- Beginning June 21, hit .381 (104-for-273) over his final 78 games to rise from .250 to .320 ... had a .500 on-base percentage and .652 slugging percentage during those contests.

2004: In his fifth consecutive All-Star season, hit .347 with 32 home runs and 96 RBI to become the first player in MLB history to hit at least .315 with 25 home runs and 95 RBI in each of his first seven full seasons in the Majors.

- Finished runner-up for the batting title for the second straight year (Barry Bonds, .362), the first player to do that in back-to-back seasons since Atlanta's Ralph Garr in 1971-72.
- Set club record by hitting 30 home runs for the seventh-straight campaign.
- Broke his own club record with 127 walks.
 - Tied Lance Berkman for the second-highest total in the Majors behind Bonds (232).
 - Drew 19 intentional walks, trailing only Bonds (120) and Jim Thome (26).
- Posted franchise-record .469 on-base percentage, second in the Majors to only Bonds' MLB record .609 OBP ... Helton's .469 mark would have led the NL in 94 of the 100 seasons during the last century from 1900 to 1999.
- Won his third Gold Glove Award, as he led all National League first basemen in fielding percentage (.997) and assists (144), ranking second in both total chances (1504) and putouts (1356) while committing four errors in 153 games.
- In the final home game of the season, Sept. 26 vs. St. Louis, Todd belted his 155th career home run at Coors Field, breaking Walker's record of 154.

2003: Matched Joe DiMaggio as the only players in Major League history to hit at least .315 with 25 home runs and 95 RBI in each of their first six full seasons.

- Became one of only six players in Major League history at the time to record a .300 batting average, 30 HR, 100 RBI and 100 runs in 5 consecutive years...the others: Lou Gehrig (9 seasons, 1929-37), Babe Ruth (7, 1926-32), Jimmie Foxx (5, 1932-36), Frank Thomas (5, 1993-97) and Vladimir Guerrero (5, 1998-2002).
- Finished .00022 points behind Albert Pujols in what was the closest batting race in National League history ... Pujols hit .35871 while Helton was finished at .35849.
- Did not lead the NL in batting average for a single day and was 56 points behind Pujols on the morning of June 15 (.379 to .323).
 - From that point until the end of the season, Helton batted .385 (129-for-335) ... he hit .373 after the All-Star Break, including a .383 mark in September.
 - Only Barry Bonds (.388) had a higher second-half average.
- Won his fourth straight Louisville Silver Slugger Award as the NL's top hitting first baseman ... surpassed 200 hits for the second time in his career, finishing with 209, runner-up to Pujols (212) in the NL.
- Led MLB with a .417 avg. w/RISP, the only qualifier to hit above .400.
- Paced the Majors with a .391 average at home but also had the eighth-highest road average in the NL at .324.
- Hit .387 vs. left-handers, led all southpaws that season and was the fourth-highest average by a left-handed hitter vs. left-handed pitching since the stat was first recorded in 1974.
 - Only Seattle's Ichiro Suzuki in 2004 (.404), Cincinnati's Ken Griffey Sr. in 1976 (.393) and Cubs' Bill Buckner in 1978 (.389) had posted higher averages vs. left-handers.
- Made his fourth consecutive appearance at the All-Star Game, his third straight as the National League's starting first baseman ... became the first Rockie to ever hit a home run in the Mid-Summer Classic, connecting on a two-run homer of Shigetoshi Hasegawa at Chicago's U.S. Cellular Field on July 15.
- Collected his 1,000th career hit on April 25 vs. Chicago-NL ... hit safely in a career-best 17 straight games,

June 15-July 2, batting .391 (27-for-69) with 17 runs, nine doubles, two home runs and eighth RBI.

- The streak was snapped July 3 vs. Arizona (0-for-4), but another one started the following day in Milwaukee, lasting 14 games from July 4-20, during which he hit .500 (26-for-52) with eight HR and 17 RBI

- Overall, hit safely in 31 of 32 games, batting a collective .424 (53-for-125) to raise his average from .323 on June 15 to .357 on July 21.

2002: Was named a National League All-Star for the third time while winning his third consecutive Louisville Silver Slugger Award and second straight Rawlings Gold Glove.

- Finished fourth in the NL with a .329 average and compiled over 30 home runs, 100 runs, 100 RBI and 300 total bases for the fourth consecutive campaign.

- Finished with a .995 fielding percentage, tied for third in the NL while his 1,357 putouts were the most in the Majors among first basemen.
- His 182 hits ranked seventh-best in the NL, his fewest since 1998 (167).
- His 30 homers marked the fewest since 1998 when he hit 25.
- Earned NL Player of the Month for May after hitting .347 with 10 home runs, the second-most homers in a single month for his career (11 in May of 2000).
- On June 15 vs. Cleveland, made his 670th career start at first base, passing Andres Galarraga (669) for most starts at first base in team history.

2001: Became the first player in Major League history to collect 100 extra base hits in consecutive seasons (103 in 2000 and 105 in 2021).

- Joined Lou Gehrig (1927-'30) and Chuck Klein (1930, 1932) as the only players to have two seasons of 100 extra base hits, consecutive or non-consecutive ... 45 of those extra-base hits came on the road.
- With 402 total bases, he became the fourth player in history (second in NL history) to total 400 bases in consecutive seasons, joining Klein (1929-30), Gehrig (1930-31) and Jimmie Foxx (1932-33).
- Won his first career Rawlings Gold Glove, compiling a .999 fielding percentage, highest in the Majors among first basemen.
- Appeared in his second All-Star Game, making his first start.
- Earned his second consecutive Louisville Silver Slugger Award.
- Was runner-up to Larry Walker for the NL batting title, hitting .336 ... Helton and Walker became the first NL teammates to finish 1-2 in the batting race since Willie Mays and Don Mueller did so for the 1954 New York Giants.
- His 49 home runs matched a single-season franchise record (Walker, 1997) ... drove in 146 runs, third-most in club history and second to only Sammy Sosa (160) in the NL.

2000: Named Associated Press Major League Player of the Year and NL Player of the Year by the Players Choice Awards ... earned the second annual Hank Aaron Award ... filled first-base slots on the NL's Louisville Silver Slugger team and AP Major League All-Star team ... Baseball Digest named him its Major League Player of the Year as did USA Baseball ... earned his first career All-Star appearance.

- Became the fifth player ever, the first in 63 years, and the first ever in the NL with at least 200 hits, 40 home runs, 100 RBI, 100 runs, 100 extra-base hits and 100 walks, joining Babe Ruth (1921), Lou Gehrig (1927, 1930), Jimmie Foxx (1932) and Hank Greenberg (1937).
- Won his first career batting title by 17 points, leading the Majors with a .372 average (216-for-580).
- Led the Majors with 147 RBI ... also led the NL with a 3.9 AB/RBI ratio.
- His 59 doubles set a new club record and were the most in the Majors in 64 years.
 - The last players to hit at least 59 doubles in a season were the Cardinals' Joe Medwick (64) and the Tigers' Charlie Gehringer (60), both in 1936.
- Led the NL in batting (.372), on-base percentage (.463) and slugging percentage (.698), giving the Rockies consecutive percentage triple crowns.
 - In 1999, Larry Walker earned the percentage triple crown, the first in the Majors since George Brett in 1980 and the first in the NL since Stan Musial in 1948.
- Led the Majors with 405 total bases ... paced the NL with 63 multi-hit games, including his career-high five hits on May 3 vs. Montreal.
- Posted club-record 44 multi-RBI games, surpassing Andres Galarraga's 42 in 1997.
- Earned the NL's Player of the Month in both May and August ... in May, he batted .512 with 11 home runs and 26 RBI ... only two players in the 1990s hit at least .500 over a calendar month (min. 50 AB): Baltimore's Roberto Alomar in Sept. 1997 and Colorado's Larry Walker in Sept. 1998.

1999: Improved in almost every offensive category after his stellar rookie season ... bolstered his batting average from .315 to .320, as well as home runs (25 to 35), RBI (97 to 113), on-base pct.

(.380 to .395) and slugging pct. (.530 to .587).

- Hit nearly 100 points better in Rockies wins than in Rockies losses (.367 vs. .283), with 23 of his 35 home runs, and 75 of his 113 RBI, coming in Colorado victories.
- On June 18 vs. Florida, was 3-for-5 with five RBI and homered twice, the second of which was his first career walk-off home run.
- One night later, on June 19, posted the third cycle in Rockies history.
- Capped the week with a homer and two more RBI, winning NL Player of the Week.

1998: In the closest balloting in 16 years, finished second in the National League Rookie of the Year race, while leading all Major League rookies in average (.315), home runs (25), RBI (97), multi-hit games (49), total bases (281), slugging pct. (.530) and extra-base hits (63) ... finished nine points behind Chicago-NL's Kerry Wood.

- Among NL rookies, he was first in runs (78), hits (167) and on-base pct. (.380).
- Since 1972, only Mike Piazza (35), David Justice (28) and Darryl Strawberry (26) had more homers as an NL rookie, and only Piazza had more RBI (112).
- On May 10 at Montreal, registered his first career multi-homer game.
- Led the Majors in August with a .398 average, hitting safely in 24 of his 29 games with 29 RBI.
- His club leading .386 average w/RISP was fourth in the NL.

1997: Made his Major League debut Aug. 2 at Pittsburgh, batting fifth and starting in left ... after flying out in his first at bat, singled in his second for his first career hit ... went on to hit his first career home run later in the game ... became second Colorado player (Jay Gainer: May 14,1993) to hit a home run in their Major League debut.

- In his second Major League game on Aug. 3, picked up two more hits and his second home run.
- Hit safely in his first four games in the Majors (.438, 7-for-16)
- Made 14 starts in the outfield (13 in left field, one in right field) and posted two assists ... started seven games at first base.
- Opened the season at Triple-A, where he was hitting .352 upon his Aug. 1 recall.

2007: 21 WINS IN 22 GAMES

The 2007 season was a historical one for the Colorado Rockies, as the team won its first National League Championship and advanced to the World Series for the first time in franchise history.

The Rockies captivated fans throughout baseball with an unprecedented run at the end of the season, winning 14 of their final 15 regular season games (including a one-game play-off for the Wild Card), sweeping the National League Division Series vs. the Phillies and the Championship Series vs. the Diamondbacks. All told, the club won 21 of 22 games heading into the 2007 World Series before being swept in four games by the Boston Red Sox.

Resiliency might be the best word to describe the 2007 Colorado Rockies. The club overcame an 18-27 start to the season, a 1-9 road trip at the end of June and the loss of three starting pitchers. The Rockies went from last place in the National League West to posting the league's best record after May 22 with a mark of 72-46 (.610), including a franchise-record 20 victories in September. The team finished at 17 games above .500, easily a franchise-best for any point in any season. The club's 90 wins matched Arizona for the most victories of any National League team in '07. 2007 became the first 90-win season in Rockies franchise history.

The sensational 21-of-22 run began on Sept. 16. Entering that day's game, the Rockies found themselves four-and-a-half games behind Wild Card leader San Diego, and they trailed both Philadelphia and Los Angeles by 3.0 games each. Colorado was also in the midst of a three-game losing streak, but the Rockies avoided a sweep, hitting four home runs (one of which was Todd Helton's 300th career home run) and collecting 20 hits to defeat the Marlins 13-0.

Following an off day, the Rockies hosted the Dodgers for four games, beginning with a doubleheader on Sept. 18. Colorado won game one by a 3-1 count as Jeff Francis struck out a career-best 10 batters, the most by a Rockies pitcher since 2003. In the nightcap, Helton hit one of the most memorable home runs in franchise history: a 418-foot two-run walk-off home run off Takashi Saito to give the Rockies a 9-8 victory and completing the doubleheader sweep. The win pushed Colorado to seven games above .500 for just the second time in '07. The Rockies defeated the Dodgers 6-5 in the third game of the set, as Brad Hawpe hit a two-run home run in the eighth inning, and the following day, Matt Holliday highlighted a six-run second inning with his 11th home run in 12 games in the Rockies' 9-4 win.

The club then traveled to Southern California for a six-game trip against San Diego and Los Angeles. In the first game of a three-game series with the Padres, the Rockies led 1-0 entering the ninth inning, but that lead vanished as Manny Corpas allowed a solo home run to Adrian González to lead off the frame. However, Brad Hawpe's home run in the 14th inning gave the Rockies a 2-1 victory, securing the club's first winning season since 2000. The Rockies went on to sweep San Diego, highlighted by a franchise-best 17th win of the season for starter Jeff Francis. The sweep notched the Rockies' 84th win of the year, setting the single-season team record.

The Rockies then traveled up the coast to play the Dodgers in three night games. In the opener, on Sept. 25, Troy Tulowitzki homered in the sixth inning to drive in the tying and go-ahead runs while Helton recorded a pair of run-scoring singles to give the Rockies their ninth consecutive victory, tying a franchise record. The following night, Josh Fogg held the Dodgers scoreless, allowing just five hits over 6.2 innings and the Rockies scored two runs in the third inning in their 2-0 shutout victory against Los Angeles. In the final road game of the season, Colorado extended its winning streak to 11 games with a 10-4 win in L.A. on Sept. 27. The club had reeled off a perfect 6-0 road trip, the first unbeaten, multi-city trip in franchise history.

Now it came down to the final weekend of the regular season as Colorado hosted first-place Arizona for three games at Coors Field. The Rockies and NL East co-leaders Philadelphia and New York all sat 1.0 game behind NL Wild Card leader San Diego (Colorado also trailed Arizona by 2.0 games in the division).

In front of 48,190 fans, the Rockies' 11-game winning streak was quickly snapped by Arizona as staff ace Brandon Webb held the Rockies to just two runs in seven innings and dealt the Rockies' and Jeff Francis a 4-2 Rockies loss. The Rockies now had to win its two remaining games and hope for the Padres to lose against the Brewers in their last two games to have a shot at the postseason by guaranteeing a tiebreaker game between the clubs to be held at Coors Field.

With their playoff hopes hanging in the balance, the Rockies' resiliency came into play. First, on Sept. 29, Tulowitzki hit his first career grand slam, Holliday drove in two runs with a double, and Garrett Atkins plated two runs as the Rockies defeated the D-backs 11-1. Meanwhile, in Milwaukee, the Padres were one strike away from a victory that would have ended Colorado's season, but closer Trevor Hoffman allowed a game-tying triple to Tony Gwynn Jr., and the Padres fell to the Brewers in extra innings. Colorado's playoffs hopes were still alive. The Rockies headed into the final day of the season needing a win and a Padres loss to force a tie in the NL Wild Card standings.

On the season's final day, the Rockies scored three times against NL West Champion Arizona in the eighth inning, snapping a 1-1 tie, just as the Padres' final score was posted on the Coors Field out-of-town scoreboard to the roaring applause of 46,375 Rockies fans. Ahead 4-1 going into the ninth inning, the Rockies' Corpas entered the game with a chance to close out the victory and extend the Rockies' season. Corpas gave up a couple hits, a Conor Jackson sacrifice fly and a two-out RBI single from Alberto Callaspo, before fielding Stephen Drew's infield grounder and firing it to first, where Todd Helton caught it and erupted in jubilation.

The Rockies had won 13 of their last 14 games to force the Wild Card tiebreaker on Oct. 1: Rockies vs. Padres at Coors Field. It marked the seventh one-game playoff in Major League history.

In the tiebreaker, Colorado took its first lead of the game in the sixth inning, battling back from a 5-3 deficit heading into the third inning. With the Rockies leading 6-5 with two outs in the eighth inning, Holliday's miscue in left field allowed the Padres to score the tying run, pushing the game into extra innings. It stayed knotted at six until San Diego broke the tie with a Scott Hairston two-run home run off Jorge Julio in the 13th inning. With an 8-6 lead, the Padres called on Trevor Hoffman to try and seal a victory for San Diego.

Backs against the wall and their season on the line, Kazuo Matsui led off the bottom half of the frame with a double and immediately scored on Tulowitzki's two-bagger to bring the Rockies within a run. Holliday followed with a first-pitch triple, scoring Tulowitzki to tie the game at eight. The Padres chose to intentionally walk Helton in order to face Jamey Carroll with Holliday and the winning run on third. Carroll hit the first pitch he saw from Hoffman to right field, where Giles caught the ball and threw home to try and cut down Holliday. Holliday tagged from third and, diving head first into home plate, narrowly beat Giles' throw to win the game, 9-8 in 13 innings.

The Rockies were going to the postseason in dramatic fashion, and for just the second time in franchise history.

The Rockies would go on to sweep the Philadelphia Phillies in the NL Division Series in three games, and then sweep the Arizona Diamondbacks in the NLCS in four games, capping the 21-of-22 run and becoming National League Champions. Despite losing the World Series title to the Boston Red Sox, this 2007 Rockies season was certainly a magical run for the ages.

2024 MEDIA POLICIES

WORKING MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Season and daily credentials are issued with the intention that they will be utilized by the working media in order to provide coverage of the Colorado Rockies at Coors Field. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation's editor, producer or director. It is the responsibility of the requesting affiliation to confirm story assignment and subsequent approval/denial of access to the game in question. The Colorado Rockies credential websites and blogs on a case-by-case basis. Media affiliates wishing to apply for credentials for the 2024 season must do so through Major League Baseball's online credentialing system at credentials.mlb.com. Please contact Robert Livingston with any credential issues and/or questions.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Season and daily photo credentials are issued only to photographers on assignment for legitimate news-gathering organizations and representatives of companies licensed by Major League Baseball. Requests must follow the procedure outlined above for "Working Media Credentials." The Rockies do not credential freelancers or any photographers without a specific assignment as outlined by an affiliation's editor, producer or director. All flash photography is prohibited at Coors Field. Please be advised that priority in all photo bays will be granted to news organizations on nightly deadlines. All mono and tripods are permitted pregame or postgame on the field, but not during the game. Any use of photographs taken other than for news-gathering purposes or MLB officially licensed products will be considered a violation of existing trademark and copyright restrictions.

As an opportunity to change photo bay locations mid-game, credentialed photographers are permitted to move along the warning track behind home plate between the first and third-base photo bays at the conclusion of the second, fourth and sixth innings. Photographers are prohibited from stopping and photographing while changing photo bays. Permission to shoot from behind home plate in the first inning will be granted based on available space and priority. Photographers wishing to gain access to the clubhouse must receive advance clearance from the Rockies Communications Department. Photography, without permission from the Rockies Communications Department, is prohibited in the clubhouse at all times.

CLUBHOUSE ACCESS

Members of the media must have a specific working purpose to gain admittance to the clubhouse. Per Major League Baseball Regular Season Club/Media Regulations, "visitors in the clubhouse, including accredited media members, should conduct themselves in a professional manner. Clubhouses are work places. Clubhouse business should be conducted as expeditiously as possible with a minimum of disruption of regular game routines. Members of the media should not excessively linger in the clubhouse when not interviewing players."

Should any media member need access to a specific player or staff member, please contact a member of the Rockies Communications Department. There shall be no seeking of autographs and no touching or removing of equipment or personal items from lockers. Media should not sit on clubhouse furniture, read newspapers or magazines or sample food spreads.

PREGAME SCHEDULE

The Rockies clubhouse opens a minimum of 3 1/2 hours prior to the game, pending first pitch time, and closes at the beginning of batting practice. The clubhouse will reopen approximately 10 minutes after the game. Clubhouse times can be found on X (Twitter) at @rockiesmedia.

MANAGER BUD BLACK AVAILABILITY

Rockies Manager Bud Black will be available to the media before and after each game, in addition to special requests. His pregame briefing is held in the dugout at the start of stretch, prior to batting practice, both on the road and at home. At home, Black's postgame press conference is held approximately 10 minutes after the game in the interview room (Rox Room), located on the Lower Level, down the first-base line from the Rockies' home clubhouse entrance. On the road, Black is available in the visiting manager's office inside the visiting clubhouse.

ROVING CAMERAS

Any camera light in the seating area of the ballpark is strictly prohibited. If a photo light comes on during the game, umpires will stop play. Still photographers must shoot from one of the photo bays (first and third base lines). With prior approval from the Rockies Communications Department, still photographers may shoot from the TV camera wells located in the outfield along the baselines and along the upper deck, space permitting.

IN-GAME INTERVIEWS

Interviews are not permitted in the ballpark during the game unless approved by the Rockies Communications Department. If approved, interviews may only be conducted on the concourse between innings (not in the stands) while the game is in progress.

WORKING PRESS BOX

Seating in the lower press box (located behind home plate on the LP level) is prioritized for daily print media, visiting media relations departments, visiting beat writers, and radio and television representatives not on the air during games. Media without a seat in the press box may sit in the media dining area located directly behind lower press.

The upper press box (located behind home plate on the Club Level) consists of two television booths and four radio booths for live broadcasts. Keeping with MLB and club policy, no person under 18 is permitted into either press box area on game days. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from the working press boxes (upper and lower) prior to and during the game.

MEDIA DINING

A media dining room is located adjacent to the working press box on the Lower Press level of Coors Field, and is available to credentialed members of the media who have access to the working press box.

RADIO INTERVIEWS

The use of cellular phones for radio interviews while on the field and in the clubhouse is strictly prohibited without being prearranged with the Rockies Communications Department.

FIELD ACCESS

All members of the media with credentials allowing them access onto the field may conduct interviews at specific times prior to the start of the game. There is no field access from behind home plate. Members of the media with home clubhouse access may reach the dugout and field via the steps leading to the home dugout when the clubhouse is open. However, when the Rockies clubhouse is closed, all media should enter and exit the field via the tunnel adjacent to the visiting dugout. The field must be cleared 50 minutes before the beginning of the game. At no time are media permitted in fair territory or anywhere down the line from the first or third base bags. Alcoholic beverages are prohibited from the field at all times. Members of the media are prohibited from standing, photographing or conducting interviews from the circle of dirt surrounding the cage while batting practice is in progress.

LIVE TRANSMISSIONS

Affiliations not licensed by MLB, and non-rights holders of the Colorado Rockies and MLB (television, radio and Internet/online sites) are prohibited from providing live telecasts or broadcasts, game simulations, pitch-by-pitch accounts, as well as from using live or taped material originating from inside the ballpark of any information about the game, including (but not limited to) any account, description, picture, video, audio, reproduction or other information concerning any MLB game (including from a camera feed already positioned within the ballpark). Such use without a license from Major League Baseball Enterprises is a violation of the policies of MLB and the Colorado Rockies and any breach will result in revocation of credentials, and may be subject to litigation. Additionally, non-licensed live transmissions are prohibited from providing live telecasts or broadcasts within the following window: the period commencing with AT&T SportsNet going on the air pregame and ending with the conclusion of the club's television and radio rights holders' (both AT&T SportsNet and 850 KOA) postgame programming. See below for more detail on live in-game radio reports.

LIVE IN-GAME RADIO REPORTS

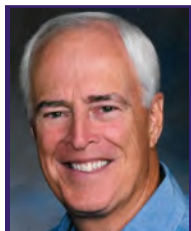

When a game is not being broadcast by ESPN Radio, MLB's national rights holder, radio stations and assigned correspondents for out-of-town reports are permitted to give inning or half-inning score updates; however, at no time can they file reports while play is in progress. When a game is being broadcast by ESPN Radio, no radio entity is allowed to file live in-game reports from the ballpark hosting that game. The ESPN Radio window of exclusivity begins 15 minutes prior to first pitch and concludes 15 minutes after the game, or when ESPN Radio completes its broadcast, whichever comes first. In addition, in order to protect the club's local rights holders, the following guidelines are recommended for all non-ESPN Radio games:

- Reports are defined as non play-by-play reporting of scores and game highlights, including scene setters, game-in-progress updates and postgame summaries. No entity other than club and national rights holders are permitted to broadcast play-by-play at any time.
- Reports must be limited to segments of 30-60 seconds each and must be confined to between innings only.
- Reports will be limited to six per game. Radio stringers must notify clubs of their plans to do live reports from the ballpark and confirm an approved location.
- The suggested sequence per media outlet is as follows: Scene Set / 2nd Inning / 4th Inning / 6th Inning / 8th Inning / Postgame summary.

AUTOGRAPHS

Credentialed members of the media are strictly prohibited from requesting autographs or equipment from any area of the ballpark. Officials will revoke credentials from violators immediately, with no exceptions.

Rockies Radio Network

Jack Corrigan

Radio Announcer - KOA

With more than 3,000 Rockies broadcasts, Jack Corrigan returns for his 22nd season in Denver and his 39th in Major League Baseball. Corrigan came to Colorado after 17 years in the Cleveland Indians television booth. In addition to his work in baseball, Corrigan has been involved with play-by-play and color commentary for the Cleveland Cavaliers telecasts in the NBA and spent more than fifteen years as the lead announcer for college football and basketball games for the Atlantic Coast Conference, Ivy League, Mid-American Conference and Patriot League, among others. In 2021, he was named by the Sports Broadcast Journal as one of the top 100 local sports broadcasters in the 100-year history of sports broadcasting.

A native Cleveland, Jack is a graduate of St. Ignatius High School and Cornell University, where he played football for four seasons while earning a B.A. in History. He received a master's degree in communications from Kent State University, and his thesis—on NFL Films—is in the archives at the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. He is involved with his own video company that has produced more than 100 projects for sports entities and other commercial and non-profit organizations.

Jack has written two novels, Warning Track, a book about an aging baseball player dealing with the lure and repercussions of supplement use, and Night of Destiny: 24 December 1, a fictionalized account of an incident in World War II that involved his late father, Judge John V. Corrigan. With two partners, he also has a screenplay under consideration as a movie or television series.

Jack and his wife, Lisa, have been married 47 years and they have two children. Megan, a graduate of Mercyhurst University, and her husband John live in Colorado with their sons, James and Daniel. Michael, a Loyola Marymount University graduate, and his husband Eric work in Chicago, where he has his own public relations company, MCPR. Jack, a prostate cancer survivor, is active with the Prostate Cancer Foundation and other local groups in increasing awareness and raising funds for research. He has been actively involved with Boys Hope/Girls Hope, a non-profit that helps academically motivated students rise above disadvantaged backgrounds. Jack is also a volunteer assistant football coach at Regis Jesuit High School in Denver. In his free time, he dabbles in oil paintings, specializing of course in baseball scenes and portraits. A collection of his work can be found in the KOA Radio booth at Coors Field.

Jerry Schemmel

Radio Announcer - KOA

2024 marks Jerry Schemmel's 13th season serving as one of the Rockies' radio announcers, his second since a stretch of 10-straight seasons from 2010 through 2019.

Schemmel's voice has been heard in the Colorado market prominently over the past two-plus decades, including as the voice of the University of Northern Colorado football and basketball teams the past two seasons. He also served as the radio play-by-play voice of the Denver Nuggets for 18 seasons, as well as the radio voice of Colorado State football and basketball during the 2009-10 seasons. His sportscasting career spans nearly 30 years and includes radio and television play-by-play of several professional and college sports. He also spent one year as the deputy commissioner and legal counsel for the Continental Basketball Association.

Schemmel is a survivor of the crash of United Flight 232 in Sioux City, Iowa on July 19, 1989. The crash killed 112 of the 296 on board. He is the author of the book Chosen To Live, which chronicles the crash of flight 232 and its subsequent effects on his life.

Schemmel earned a law degree in 1985 from Washburn University, after receiving his undergraduate degree from the school in 1982. He also played baseball at Washburn and later was an assistant coach at the school for three years. Schemmel grew up in Madison, S.D., and now resides in Denver during the season and Scottsdale during the offseason.

Rockies TV Talent

Drew Goodman

Play-by-Play Announcer

Drew Goodman, one of the most versatile broadcasters in sports, is in his 23rd year calling Colorado Rockies games.

For 10 years (1994-2004), Goodman was the TV play-by-play announcer for Denver Nuggets telecasts, and from 2002-04, he was one of a few broadcasters to regularly call action for telecasts of two professional teams in the same year, annually logging more than 190 games between the Rockies and Nuggets. Prior to becoming the Rockies TV play-by-play voice in 2002, he worked select MLB national games for FSN and FX, and hosted the "Rockies Pregame Report" and "Rockies Weekly."

His work in football has been extensive, including stints calling the NFL for both NBC and FOX. He has called college football and basketball for FOX Sports Net, FX, ESPN, PAC-12 Network and AT&T SportsNet over the last thirty years and continues those duties at the conclusion of the baseball season. He is also in year four of hosting The Drew Goodman Podcast, an interview and sports topical-based weekly show.

His work has not been limited to just the major sports, as he has covered everything from the ATP Tour to track and field to World Cup skiing. Between 2012 and 2014, he co-hosted one of the top-rated radio shows in Denver for 104.3 The Fan, and hosted the "Charlie Blackmon Show" for the station. He is a 13-time winner of Colorado Sportscaster of the Year as voted by his peers in the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters, and additionally has won several Emmy awards for his work. In 2019, his book If These Walls Could Talk: Stories from the Colorado Rockies Dugout, Locker Room, and Press Box was released, detailing stories from many Rockies players, managers and front office staff in Goodman's two decades around the club.

A native of New York, Goodman received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca College in 1985. His most important endeavor are his three baseball playing sons, Jacob, Zachary and Gabriel.

Jeff Huson

Color Analyst

The 2024 season marks Jeff Huson's 19th in the broadcast booth after embarking on a new career in baseball in 2006. When not working in the booth, Huson's insights about the game are a welcome contribution during the Rockies pregame and postgame shows on the network.

The former University of Wyoming baseball star played 15 years in professional baseball, including 12 years as a utility player with the Montreal Expos, Texas Rangers, Baltimore Orioles, Milwaukee Brewers, Seattle Mariners, Anaheim Angels and Chicago Cubs. He also served as a roving infield instructor with the Chicago Cubs organization, working with Major League prospects from the Triple-A level to the Dominican Republic League from 2001-05.

He played shortstop at Wyoming 1984-85, after transferring from Glendale (Ariz.) Community College. In 2015, Huson was officially inducted into the University of Wyoming Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame. In 2017, Jeff was also inducted into the Glendale Community College Hall of Fame.

A native of Sedona, Ariz., Huson and his family have resided in Parker, Colo., for the past 27 years. Jeff and his wife Wendy are both graduates of the University of Wyoming and have three children: Lindsay (husband Steve), Kyle (wife Emily) and Cody (wife Sarah). They welcomed their first grandchild in March 2016, a granddaughter named Tatum, and a second granddaughter, Parker, in November 2018. Their first grandson, Callen, was born in June 2022 with a second grandson, Brooks, arriving in March 2023.

Ryan Spilborghs

Color Analyst

Ryan Spilborghs joined the Rockies television broadcast team in 2014. As a former National League Champion with the Rockies in 2007, Spilborghs provides a unique perspective on the broadcasts in his role as game analyst alongside play-by-play man Drew Goodman, as well as sideline analyst.

Spilborghs is also the host of Loud Outs on MLB Network Radio, and lead analyst for Friday Night Baseball on AppleTV+.

A Santa Barbara, Calif. native, Spilborghs was recruited to play baseball at the University of California - Santa Barbara, where he was a two-time Big West selection. After being selected in the seventh round of the 2002 MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Rockies, he spent six seasons as an outfielder for the team, doing his part to advance the 2007 and 2009 Rockies teams to the postseason. One of his most memorable achievements came against the Giants in late August of 2009, when he hit the first walk-off grand slam in Rockies team history.

Spilly has spent the last nine years building and developing Future Legends, a 118-acre sports complex featuring a professional stadium, multiple baseball diamonds, multi-purpose fields, indoor bubble sports arena, lodging, retail and more. Located an hour north of Denver, Future Legends is Colorado's elite sports facility for players of all ages and skill levels designed to host guests for major sports tournaments, events, leagues and more.

Spilborghs lives in Denver with his wife Stacey and their teenagers, Kierra and Tatum.

Rockies TV Talent

Marc Stout

Host/Reporter

Marc Stout has been a versatile part of Rockies' TV broadcasts since 2007. Stout moved to Denver in 1995 after a five year radio stint in Buffalo, N.Y., where he was part of the Buffalo Bills radio network and was co-host of the 97 Rock morning show.

In Denver, Stout's on-air work in radio has been extensive with KOOL 105, 850 AM / 94.1 FM KOA, KBPI and 103.5 The Fox. He has also been on the sidelines for the Broncos' radio network, called play-by-play for Colorado Crush AFL games on the radio, Colorado Rapids games on TV, as well as play-by-play and sideline reporting for numerous Mountain West Conference football and basketball games.

A Trenton, N.J. native, Stout received his bachelor's degree in communications from Ithaca College in 1984.

Cory Sullivan

Analyst

Cory Sullivan joined Rockies broadcasts in 2014 after an 11-year playing career. Sullivan was drafted in the seventh round of the 2001 First-Year Player Draft by the Colorado Rockies and played seven Major League seasons with the Rockies, Mets and Astros, while also spending time in the Dodgers and Phillies organizations. Sullivan made his Major League debut on April 4, 2005, and was a member of the 2007 National League Champion Rockies.

Originally from Pittsburgh, Pa., Sullivan graduated from North Allegheny High School before attending Wake Forest University, where he graduated with a degree in psychology and political science. In 2001, he won the Arnold Palmer Award at Wake Forest for the male athlete of the year.

Cory and his girlfriend Jaclyn McFadyen reside in Denver, Colo., with their daughter Riley Sullivan.

Kelsey Wingert

Host/Reporter

Kelsey Wingert enters her third year as a member of the Rockies broadcast team as the sideline reporter for the Rockies. The 2024 season will be Wingert's eighth covering MLB after a five-year stint with Fox Sports South (now Bally Sports South) in Atlanta, primarily covering the Atlanta Braves. In addition to the Braves, Wingert also covered ACC College Football, the Atlanta Hawks, Charlotte Hornets, Nashville Predators and Carolina Hurricanes.

Wingert also works for Jomboy Media and has a podcast on their platform with former MLB pitcher, Peter Moylan. On Farm to Fame, they cover baseball's biggest prospects, up-and-comers, international & college baseball and the MLB Draft.

Prior to her time in Atlanta, Wingert spent two years working in local TV at KALB in Alexandria, La., and sideline reporting for Cox Sports Television, where she covered all sports in the SEC, Southland Conference and SWAC.

Originally from Sugar Land, Texas, Wingert attended Stephen F. Austin High School before graduating Summa Cum Laude from Louisiana State University with a degree in broadcast journalism and a minor in sports studies.

Kelsey and her husband, Casey Linch, got married in 2022 and have a home in Acworth, Ga. They've loved getting to know Denver and are excited to spend another season in what's becoming their second home.

Rockies Spanish Radio- KNRV

Salvador Hernandez

Play-by-Play Announcer - 1150 /96.1 FM

Salvador Hernandez enters his 12th season as the Rockies' Spanish radio play-by-play announcer. He has over 35 years of experience working in media, mostly broadcasting baseball and basketball games. In 2005, he served as the broadcaster for the Caribbean Series for 25 radio stations in Chihuahua, Mexico.

Hernandez has garnered numerous awards throughout his broadcasting career, including the Award of Excellence for Best Sports Coverage regardless of language in 2018, 2021 and 2022, the Award of Excellence in 2016 and 2019, and the Certificate of Merit in 2018.

Born in Parral, Chihuahua, Mexico, Hernandez started playing baseball at the age of five, mainly as a pitcher and first baseman. Later, he combined the practice of the sport with the broadcasting.

Currently, Hernandez is the general manager of KNRV 1150 AM/96.1 FM in Denver, a post he has held for the last 13 years. He is also a sports columnist for several newspapers in the Denver metro area. Salvador has a son, Sebastian, who loves to play baseball. And in 2021, Sebastian made his debut broadcasting Rockies' baseball for KNRV.

Carlos Valdez

Play-by-Play Announcer - 1150 AM/96.1 FM

Carlos Valdez was born and raised in Mexico City and moved to the United States when he was 22 years old. Upon moving to the U.S., he began working in the restaurant industry, and by 1989, he had opened his own bakery in the San Fernando Valley, Calif.

Valdez played baseball for two years and then decided to be a spectator of the sport, earning some income by taking notes on the sports teams for a local newspaper in California.

He left California and came to Colorado in 2000. For more than 10 years, Valdez was the co-host of "Jueves Deportivo," a weekly sports show that was broadcast on KNRV. He continued with his bakery business in Colorado, and today, he and his family enjoy serving the Aurora community with fresh Mexican bread.

In the last five years, Valdez has dedicated more time to sports broadcasting by doing play-by-play announcing at baseball and football games. He is part of KNRV's staff that won the Award of Excellence for Best Sports Coverage in 2018, 2021 and 2022.

The fields on the south side (bottom of rendering) are the Rockies' training fields. Arizona's training facility and fields are beyond left field. In the southwest portion of the rendering is a lake that provides water to maintain Salt River Fields at Talking Stick.

At Left: The state of the art Keli S. McGregor Training Center features two levels of equipment and a wall of windows that open up to the outside.

At Right: This upper-deck view of the main stadium field faces east, with the McDowell Mountains in clear view beyond the outfield wall.

INAUGURAL SALT RIVER FIELDS ATTENDANCE RECORDS

The Colorado Rockies, Arizona Diamondbacks and Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community set the all-time Major League Baseball Spring Training attendance record by drawing 359,308 fans to Salt River Fields at Talking Stick in its inaugural season in 2011. Peoria Sports Complex held the previous MLB record for a two-team facility when the Seattle Mariners and San Diego Padres drew 230,146 fans in 2008.

Overall, the D-backs and Rockies sold out 21 of 33 games at Salt River Fields in 2011, including a stretch of 10 consecutive sellouts from March 12-20. The D-backs and Rockies also had the top two attendance averages in the Cactus League in 2011. Following the 2011 season, BallparkDigest.com named Salt River Fields at Talking Stick its Ballpark of the Year.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Rockies in the Community

The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation

Since the organization's inception in 1993, the Colorado Rockies have demonstrated a passionate commitment to their philanthropic mission of positively impacting the community through corporate investment and active outreach. The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation is the charitable arm of the organization tasked with the mission to support underprivileged and at-risk youth through programs for youth baseball and softball, education, literacy, drug and alcohol-abuse awareness and prevention.

Since 1993, the CRBC Foundation has granted over $35 million to agencies, organizations and programs that support the foundation's mission. In addition, the Rockies take pride in hosting members of the community at Coors Field, having donated close to two million tickets to numerous non-profit organizations throughout the region.

50/50 Raffle

The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation has hosted the Metropolitan State University of Denver's Alumni Association in their 50/50 Raffle for the past six seasons, and the program will continue for 2024. This season, fans will be able to purchase tickets during every home game in-person from our volunteer sellers with touchless payment options, or online at ROCKIES5050.com anywhere in the State of Colorado. Winners will be selected on a nightly basis and 50% of the jackpot will go to one lucky fan. The other half will go to the Colorado Rockies Foundation and MSU Denver students and scholarships.

NEW THIS SEASON: A bonus raffle will be activated on the first game of each Rockies road trip and will conclude on the first game of a homestand at Coors Field with a winner drawn during the eighth inning. Tickets can be purchased exclusively online at ROCKIES5050.COM. Fans who purchase prior to the first pitch of the first home game of a homestand will be eligible to win bonus prizes such as authenticated autographed items, while remaining eligible for the jackpot.

All rules, details and FAQs can be found at Rockies.com/5050.

Rockies Youth Baseball Initiatives

The Colorado Rockies Youth Baseball Initiative encompasses a wide range of programs designed to inspire and cultivate a love of baseball and softball among local youth. These programs place an emphasis on health and activity through baseball and softball, and give opportunities for children to work with and learn from professional Rockies coaches and players. Programs that are under the initiative cater to a wide range of ages, socio-economic circumstances and physical abilities. Some of these programs have sprung from long-standing local relationships.

In 2007, the Rockies adopted the Boys & Girls Clubs Owen Branch, located in West Denver, and have since played host to club members at annual baseball/softball skills clinics and other events. Over the past year, the Rockies also hosted baseball/softball events with: Big Brothers Big Sisters of Colorado, National Sports Center for the Disabled, Girls Inc. of Metro Denver, Buckley Air Force Base and Fantasy Camp for Kids. The Rockies also host the Youth Baseball Camp and Youth Softball Camp at Coors Field annually, which helps raise money for the Rockies Foundation while providing a fun and unique camp experience.

And since 2001, the Rockies have hosted High School Baseball Games at Coors Field in March and April. For participating schools throughout the state of Colorado, these games provide a lucrative fundraising opportunity through ticket sales that has averaged $25,000-$35,000, which has been used to benefit their school's athletic program, facilities, equipment or whatever they choose.

RBI Program

The Rockies are proud participants in Major League Baseball's RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) Program. Established in 1989, RBI's mission is to assist financially disadvantaged families and communities in engaging youth in physical and mental activity by offering them an opportunity to play in summer baseball and softball leagues at no cost to their families.

The Rockies run a total of 46 teams within three divisions: seniors baseball (ages 16-18), juniors baseball (ages 13-15) and softball (18 and under). In 2018, 23 area schools in Aurora, Commerce City, Denver, Lakewood, Arvada and Thornton participated in the program. The season runs from late May through mid-July and culminates with a final tournament. The Greater Denver RBI Program has had over 700 participants each year.

Colorado Rockies "Make an Impact" Program

"Make an Impact" is a character education initiative that complements preexisting PBS (Positive Behavior Support) programs with an on-site "Rockies School Rally." This school-wide assembly is designed to entertain students while teaching them the importance of staying in school, refusing drugs, respect and getting involved within their own communities. The 45-minute interactive program is designed for grades K-6 and features recorded player messages as well as a visit from Rockies mascot Dinger. Since 2006, the Make an Impact assembly program has been presented at over 350 schools and has reached close to 155,000 students.

Rockies Wives

Each season, wives and girlfriends of Rockies players and coaches give back to the Colorado community by participating in various fundraising and awareness programs, as proud representatives of the Rockies organization.

The Care & Share Program

The Care & Share Program is an initiative that gives children living with serious illnesses the opportunity to be special guests at Coors Field prior to and during a Rockies home game. Participants in the program are invited to spend time on the field during batting practice, where they are able to meet and receive autographs from Rockies players. Participants are selected through a collaboration with the Make-A-Wish Foundation and Children's Hospital Colorado.

CRBC Foundation at Spring Training

The Colorado Rockies Baseball Club Foundation is committed to community outreach throughout the year in the Rocky Mountain Region, and that commitment extends to their home away from home during the spring. With the move to the spectacular Salt River Fields at Talking Stick complex in 2011, the Rockies have the unique opportunity to collaborate with the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community (SRPMIC) on several projects with organizations that directly contribute to the quality of life for all people in the community.

Of particular interest to the Rockies are projects that allow baseball to positively impact the lives of children who are at risk. Efforts to prevent substance abuse, increase literacy and educational achievement and promote good citizenship among community youth are crucial to the Rockies' charitable mission. With that interest as a guide, the Rockies have hosted and participated in several SRPMIC events. Each year since they relocated to Scottsdale, the Rockies have been involved with the youth of the SRPMIC by hosting baseball/softball clinics, "Make an Impact" school visits, equipment drives and physical fitness events.

The Colorado Rockies are proud to share in the cultural diversity, rich history and artistic values of the Pima and Maricopa tribes. The organization looks forward to many years of shared experiences and events that can make a difference in the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community.
